

UC-NRLF

$B 624 119

889y
K33
dic

Dictionary OF SERVICE

S
L
A N
G
by

GOBS
SPARS

pitkit... an ashtray

WACS WAFS

izzlies... Navy cotton stockings

MARINES WAVES

rmored heifer... canned

SOLDIERS milk SEABEES

ight bomber... playboy

NURSES WOMEN'S RESERVE

ruesome twosome...

a Wac's regulation shoes

DICTIONARY
of
SERVICE SLANG

OWKS!
SUCH LANGUAGE!

YOU AIN'T KIDDIN',
BABE.
THIS IS IT!

Dictionary
of
SERVICE SLANG

Compiled by PARK KENDALL

M. S. MILL CO. INC., Publisher
New York

COPYRIGHT 1941, 1942, 1943, 1944, BY

M. S. MILL CO., INC.

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced in any form without permission in writing from the publisher, except by a reviewer who may quote brief passages in a review to be printed in a magazine or newspaper.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE

A recent ruling by the War Production Board has curtailed the use of paper by book publishers.

In line with this ruling and in order to conserve materials and manpower, we are co-operating by (a) using lighter-weight paper which reduces the bulk of our books, and (b) printing books with smaller margins and with more words to each page. The text itself is not abridged or shortened in any way.

We are sure that readers will understand the publisher's desire to co-operate as fully as possible with the objectives of our government.

MANUFACTURED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
BY THE VAIL-BALLOU PRESS, INC., BINGHAMTON, N. Y.

With many thanks to the men and women in our armed services.

This richly humorous and picturesque slang has been assembled from thousands of postal cards and letters received from lads and lassies wearing Uncle Sam's uniforms in barracks, battleships and bombers; from deserts and seas and jungles around the globe.

This authentic collection of dazzling and disrespectful slanguage fulfills a double purpose—that of education and entertainment. If you are a civilian, it enables you to speak the language of the service. If you wear the uniform, you will find in this book all the regular G.I. slang from your outfit along with some innovations in cryptic cussing of literary beauty.

123456789

ARMY SLANG

A

AAF American Air Force.
Ack-Ack a machine gun, also known as a Scatter gun, Shot gun, Chatterbox. Anti-aircraft gun.
acting gadget acting corporal.
Adjutant's Post spot on parade grounds where Adjutant stands during a review—also a run-around. Recruits have been known to walk miles to borrow one.
African golf crap shooting.
air corps chicken a fowl that is all wings.
air log altimeter.
alibi order firing an extra shot because of rifle trouble or something.
ammo ammunition.
angel anyone who buys a drink.
angel cake and wine bread and water in confinement.
apple knocker upstate farm hand now in infantry.
Archies anti-aircraft guns.
Are you writing a book? turn-away reply for over-inquisitive.
arm bender a drinking party.
arm dropper section chief or sergeant who signals to fire.
an Arthur Donovan soldier who thinks he can referee war maneuvers.
armor the steel helmet.
pass the armored cow canned milk.
army banjo shovel.
army Bible regulations.
army brat small child of an officer . . . such disrespect, tch, tch! Sometimes called G I brats. Well, that's better.
army chicken beans and frankfurters.
Aussies or Anzacs soldiers from Australia and New Zealand.

awkward squad where backward rookies receive elementary instruction.
A W O L absent without leave—also A Wolf On the Loose After Women or Liquor.

B

B 19 a hefty girl.
B Boy playful allusion to a mess sergeant. It insinuates soldiers will have to dine later and mess sergeant will derive a commission from the café.
the baby carriage machine gun cart.
baby food cereal.
back in the rack to get back into bed. A soldier should never go to work as long as he has the strength to lie in bed.
a back-yard soldier lives nearby and goes home week-ends.
Do you have a badge? I say, old man, aren't you being a bit nosy?
baffle painting camouflage.
bag a woman.
Baltimore steak liver.
barb wire garters imaginary—awarded as a consolation in lieu of medals or citations.
a barker big artillery gun.
barracks fatigue loafing in quarters.
Barracks 13 the guardhouse.
a barrage a party where a jug is produced and the spirited contents trickle musically into the glasses.
a barrow jockey pushes a wheelbarrow.
bathroom stationery a roll of tissue.
bath tub motorcycle sidecar.
battery acid coffee, also known as ink.

the bean gun . . . rolling kitchen.
beans . . . commissary officer.
bean shooter . . . civilian dietician at Post.
bear grease . . . G I soap. (pronounced B'ar) a bearded lady . . . a searchlight that diffuses.
beautify the Post . . . miscellaneous chores like lawn cutting, hedge trimming or painting.
a beetle . . . a girl to Alaska soldiers. beetsoom . . . Beats the stuff out of me; or, I don't know.
behavior report . . . letter to the girl friend.
belly robber . . . inelegant reference to the cook.
to bend the throttle . . . fly above normal cruising speed.
a benny . . . a break in formation during which a soldier can rest or smoke—also a sloppy soldier.
benzine board . . . group of officers who set penalties.
best you . . . an implication that if you know what is best for you it is best that you do as directed.
B G . . . before girls enlisted and complicated the army.
Bible . . . Army Field Manual.
Big Boot . . . the General.
big Berthas . . . hefty dames.
big John . . . a recruit from the country.
bird dogging . . . dancing with a superior's girl. biscuit gun . . . non-existent—shoots food to inept flyers.
he's biting butts . . . broke and smoking butts.
bivoucky . . . nuts from maneuvers.
to blab off . . . talk out of turn.
the Black Eagle . . . the guy you get all your confidential latrine rumors from.
black hawk . . . army necktie.
pass the blackout . . . general issue coffee—also known as black-strap, tar-water and solvent and boiler compound.

black strap . . . coffee.
black Wednesday . . . rifle calisthenics. blanket drill . . . sleep.
blankets . . . hot cakes.
blanko water . . . coffee—also known as bootleg and jamoke.
he blew his stack . . . got excited and made a series of mistakes.
he blew his top . . . lost his temper.
a baby blimp . . . a jolly fat girl.
a blind . . . the money fine in a court martial sentence.
blind flying . . . date with unseen girl.
a blitz . . . bombardment.
blitzes . . . air patrols.
Blitzkrieg . . . lightning offensive technique for borrowing money. The rush act—also written order from commanding officer. (in Southern drawl) Bless its haht, it's dahlin, but it's gotta die. Means Bless it's heart, it's darling, but it's got to die. Which means it's just too cute to live so I'll have to kill it.
a blitzkrieg rating . . . a promotion due to sudden expanse of the army.
blood . . . ketchup—also known as redevye and red lead.
blow it out of your bag . . . refrain from talking, if you will be so good!
blowing smoke . . . trying to impress officer.
a blue moon . . . a dime a dance girl.
blue tuxedos . . . denims, sometimes called blue serge.
a bob tail . . . a dishonorable discharge.
a bobber . . . carries tales.
boggies . . . wheels on 3 inch anti-aircraft gun.
a bog pocket . . . tightwad.
a bolo . . . soldier who fails on firing range.
bologna . . . all cold meats.
a bomb-a-deer . . . bomber personnel.

- a bomb heaver a pretty girl.
a bomber mouse refers to the sooty ring around the right eye of a Bombardier from peering through the soft rubber eye piece of the famous Norden bombsight.
boom boom any small arm.
a boogie woogie boy a jitterbug draftee.
the boss top sergeant, also known as Pop.
a bottle baby one who freely imbibes alcohol.
the boudoir squad tent.
bow legs horse cavalrymen.
a brace exaggerated position of attention.
brain food noodle soup.
a brass hat staff officer.
brass pounder radio telegrapher.
bread sergeant dining room orderly. Just an ordinary private doing K. P. heh, heh, heh!
a brief week-end leave.
the brig army jail—also known as the can, clink, stockade, hoosegow, detention barracks, guard-house, mill, the playhouse and in the moosh.
they broke him took away rank—also piled or busted.
a broolly parachute, RAF—sometimes called the life insurance.
brown bombers CC pills, the army laxative.
a brown nose handshaker or army politician.
to brown off to be bored or fed up.
bubble dancing kitchen police.
a buck private everybody ranks him as he is the rankest.
a bucket of boost this assists a pilot to get a plane off the ground. Suppose you try to locate some. What do you say? Start with the Major.
bucking trying for promotion.
bucking for a section 8 trying to get discharged for ineptitude. And can top sergeants spot the sham? I'd rather fight Japs with a yo yo.
a buck sergeant ordinary line sergeant.
to buck up shine brass buttons for inspection.
a buddie anybody anywhere who will loan you anything.
the buddy seat side car on motorcycle.
bugs any solids found in soup.
he built a wooden horse made a shattering plane landing.
built-in head wind implying a plane lacks speed.
on the bull on the target.
a bull dog Military Police.
the bull pen sanctuary where an erring soldier can be alone with his gun and walk for hours on end without interruption.
pass the bullets beans.
Bunion Breeders infantry, also known as Paddlefeet. bunk fatigue forty winks—every soldier's ambition. To lie abed.
bunk flying talking aviation in quarters, also known as horizontal flying.
bunk stretcher imaginary tool to perplex rookies.
my Bunky my pal. He shares your pup tent, your cigarets, your money, your joys, your sorrows, your girl—well, maybe I went too far there.
burn and turn black jack game.
buscar borrowed money.
Butch friendly term for commanding officer. Also known as the K.O., Skipper and the Old Man. Used in his absence, of course.
butt balance of enlistment.
butts up same as Police Up. Means pick up anything not growing in the ground.
full of butterflies full of burps.
button chopper the laundry.
button it up close tank.

all buttoned up . . . orders carried out.
a buzz . . . widespread rumor.
buzzard . . . chicken.
Buzzard Buster . . . air corps.
the Buzzers . . . Signal Corps.

C

cackle jelly . . . eggs.
Cadre . . . skeleton force in expanding unit.
Camel Corps . . . infantry—also foot sloggers and gravel crushers.
he's camp happy . . . a little touched.
cannon ball . . . grapefruit.
the cannon report . . . a rookie run-around. Everybody suggests places where he may obtain one. Fun for all.
the canteen . . . army retail store—carries everything a soldier needs.
canteen medals . . . beer stains.
a canteen soldier . . . wears non-regulation garb or insignia.
carrier pigeon . . . soldier carrying officers' messages.
carrying a heavy load . . . melancholy, depressed.
Casey Jones . . . winch man on barrage balloon.
cat beer . . . milk.
Caterpillar Club . . . a jump for life in a parachute qualifies for membership.
C B . . . confined to barracks.
CC pills . . . relieve sluggishness caused by faulty elimination. The Medical Corps' first diagnosis.
CC pushers . . . medical corps.
chasing prisoners . . . guarding unlucky stiffs at work.
a light chassis . . . well built girl.
going to change my oil . . . take a bath.
a check ride . . . flight to determine cadet's fitness.
the cheese toaster . . . bayonet—also known as cat stabber, pig sticker, toadsticker and toothpick.

chest hardware . . . medals—also called gongs.
a Chicago piano . . . tommy gun.
a Chicago atomizer . . . automatic rifle.
chicken . . . extremely young recruit.
a chili bowl . . . regulation haircut.
China berries . . . English peas.
a China clipper . . . a dishwasher on K. P. a Chinese landing . . . one wing low.
he made a Chinese 3 point landing . . . crashed.
to choke up . . . to have the mind leave the body.
chow . . . army food, also known as slum.
a chow hound . . . makes eating a career.
he bought his girl a chubby . . . was broke so he gave her a pinch on the cheek and spent the evening smoking her old man's cigarets and raiding the ice box.
he cinched the bread . . . took last piece and didn't refill the dish.
pass the city cow . . . canned milk.
civvies . . . clothes you sold when you entered the army.
the Clara . . . the all clear air raid signal RAF.
a class A pass . . . leave any time not on duty.
a class B pass . . . leave between retreat and reveille.
to climb somebody . . . scold or razz.
a clinker . . . wrong note in music.
to clip-clip . . . to steal.
clobber . . . clothes.
clods . . . pennies.
a clover leaf . . . a shot landing in the black and white disc on the firing range.
a cluck . . . the company clerk, also known as a jerk.
he got cold cocked . . . knocked out.
in a cockpit fog . . . mentally upset.
cockpit trouble . . . an airplane wreck caused by the pilot rather than mechanical difficulty.

code-happy exuberant Radio school student.
coffin inspection foot locker inspection.
Come on the Green! challenge to fight.
comb it make detailed inspection of tank.
the Company clown company clerk.
the company screwball a comedian in khaki.
cop a Sunday sock somebody without warning.
corn squeezins whisky made on the farm.
corn willie corned beef in tins.
the corpse affectionate term for corps.
a corpuscle a corporal.
cosmolines the Artillery.
the country club Randolph flying field.
a cowboy a tank driver.
cowboy hat campaign hat.
a CQ the guy who blows the whistle to get the men up in the morning. He follows the bugler and is in Charge of Quarters.
a crash an omelette.
crash tag identification bracelet.
cream on a shingle creamed beef on toast.
croot recruit, also known as a yearo, rookie, trainee, draftee, selectee, bimbo, bozo, dude, John dogface, bucko, poggie and once in a while called a soldier.
cross bar hotel the guardhouse.
crow chicken.
crow bar hotel another affectionate term for the dear old army jail.
crumb hunt kitchen inspection.
crump hole crater made by explosion.
the crying towel the Chaplain's shirt tail.

cuckoos bombers, also known as hornets.
cueballs the lads the student barber works on.
cushy soft and easy.

D

Daisy May fatigue hat, blue denim.
the day room club room in barracks.
a deadbeat leaves a negligible scrap on the plate to avoid refilling it.
Dean of the Latrine private scrubbing plumbing.
deep-sea turkey salmon.
defrosting drinking liquor.
the dentist gas man on barrage balloon.
Devil's bonnet steel helmet.
the Devil's piano machine gun.
didie bag where soldier keeps valuables.
didie pins single gold bars worn on shoulder.
Dihedral oil sounds technical but raw recruits can't locate any. Do you suppose it's a run-a-round?
Ding How O.K.
dipped failed.
a dirt bag a soldier on the garbage detail.
discipline soldiers always say disciplin'.
Dit Da Artist radio operator.
dive bombing policing up.
in dock hospital—also sick bay.
dodging the column avoiding work.
dodo cadet before he flies, also known as a penguin.
dog affectionate term for cavalryman's horse, also called a job.
dog fat butter.
dogged up dressed up.
the dog house the guardhouse.
dog robber the Captain's orderly.

a dog show foot inspection.
dog tag identification disc worn around neck.
a dolly dancer soldier on office duty who caters to officers.
Don't break the shovel a shovel is used by the lads down at the stables to throw stuff about. Need we go further?
Don't give me a bad time don't annoy me.
a doodle bug tank.
a dopey crate a poor airplane.
a double PFC a corporal.
in a down draft caught in an embarrassing situation.
downhill on last half of enlistment, sometimes called over the hump.
a down-wind always looking in a mirror or combing his hair.
drafted acrobats parachute jumpers.
Drag a date with a girl.
Dragging dating.
draped intoxicated.
Driftee draftees, also called yearlings.
drive it in the hangar stop talking.
DRO day room orderly.
be droopy screwy.
dry ammunition for practice only.
a dry canteen serves everything but merry mucilage.
a dry run simulating action; a rehearsal.
dual flying date with chaperon along. Cramps your style.
dud disappointment.
duds unexploded shells, also known as fizzles.
duff gen rumors.
a Dulalley tap sunstroke. dust dust soldier with new chevrons which he polishes often.
dynamite pills urge nature.

E

eagle day pay day.
an ear-banger extols merits to officers.
an eagle walker the Colonel's orderly.
an egg beater spill. Ski troops.
eggs in the beer too much of a good thing.
an eight ball soldier always in trouble.
elephants' traps holes dug for refuse.
erks mechanics in RAF.
where is your ess sprit dee corpse? inelegant reference to high brotherhood ideals—Esprit de Corps.
ether radio telephone.
eyes sharp unofficial order to note oncoming female.
eyes wide open eggs straight up.

F

the faint wagon ambulance.
the Fanny empennage or rear portion of plane.
fat friends observation balloons
 —also known as flying elephants.
fatigue army chores outside of drill.
feather merchants civilian workers on army cantonment.
my fi'nance fiancée.
find out the score get the correct information.
he's fighting the war in triplicate making triplicate forms in an office.
to file a flight plan discuss furlough plans.
file it make a straight toss to the wastebasket.
fireworks anti-aircraft fire—also known as AA bursts.
fish eyes tapioca with raisins.

flag waver....imaginary apparatus for amazement of rookies.
to flash the hooks....display your rank.
flea bag....your mattress.
fleas....4 cylinder Fords and Austins.
he flew too near the sun....the end.
to flog....to sell.
a flop....a false air alarm.
the Flower of the Nation....a term the newspapers used in referring to the trainees. But a soldier uses it to refer to anyone with a touch of lavender—also known as a fluff, a fairy, a daisy or a fuff.
flower pot....plane pot turret.
to fly by the seat of your pants....do it by instinct.
a flying gadget....a flying cadet.
a flying K. P.....student mechanic who polishes planes.
a flying pig....aerial torpedo.
flying the iron beam....pilot flying along railroad.
flying the wet beam....flying along river.
to fly one wing low....inebriated.
flyslicer....a mounted cavalryman.
fog factory....region of fogs.
for the jump....orderly room parade.
Foo Chon....secret code word meaning the poker game.
a footlocker cocktail....lemon extract substituting for liquor.
a four by four....a four wheel drive truck with four speeds forward.
400W....maple syrup.
a fox hole....pit dug to protect body.
a frogskin....a dollar bill.
it's from hunger....below standard, screwy.
front and center....won't you kindly come forward?
fudge....army soap.
he's full of feathers....a cheerful liar.

funeral glide....plane out of control.
funeral pie....raisin pie.
fuzzie-wuzzies....winter issue trousers, also called blankets.

G

G I....general issue, which refers to anything carried by the Quartermaster.
G I brats....officers' children.
G I cans....galvanized iron cans used for garbage.
a G I cocktail....a dose of salts.
a G I haircut....cut to 1 inch.
a G I hop....dance.
the G I Jesus....the Chaplain. (Used with affection.)
G I lemonade....water.
G I turkey....corned beef.
a G I war....maneuver, a rehearsal.
a gabbing jam....in a huddle over dames.
G 2....inquisitiveness.
a G man....a garbage man.
gadgets....show tickets.
galloping dominoes....dice, also called parlor golf.
galvanized Guernsey....canned milk, also called tintitty.
garrison shoes....army dress shoes.
a gas house....a beer joint, sometimes referred to as a hangar.
the gas house gang....chemical instructors.
a gasoline cowboy....in the armored force.
he's gear happy....truck driver who shifts excessively.
gedunks....doughnuts.
geese....enemy bombers.
the General's car....a wheelbarrow.
a Gentleman by Act of Congress....an officer.
Georgia ice cream....grits.
a germ bird....a soldier quarantined for illness.

a Gertrude a soldier on office duty.
he can't get off the ground with her impress the girl.
get on the ball concentrate, get going.
get on the bit pay attention.
get the lead out of your pants would you be good enough to move with a bit more alacrity?
he is getting the lemonade getting eliminated or dismissed.
ghost suit white uniforms of Ski Troops.
a gig demerit.
gigged denied leave for some minor infraction.
a gig getter a gun that won't pass inspection.
a gigolo anyone who gets a letter or phone call from a girl.
a gin mill serves alcoholic beverages.
give it to grandma put in low gear.
giving the oil smooth talk to whitewash transgression.
glamour boy selectee. Sometimes called a goon.
glue money.
a goat a horse.
a gobstick clarinet, also a licorice stick.
going boom boom to the rifle range.
going up the pole refrain from alcohol.
go into a tail spin get mad.
a gold brick a soldier who eats and sleeps well but has no desire for work.
goldfish canned salmon.
he has gone on the tack forsworn alcoholic beverages.
good 'til the last drop parachute jumper.
a goof burner smokes marihuana.

goofers book matches, strike one and then goof another.
to goof off make mistake at drill.
a goofy discharge given the mentally unfit, sometimes called a Section 8.
goo goos natives of the Philippines.
gooks brown skin natives.
goosing the wind hitch hiking.
Go to Hell caps over-seas caps. grass any vegetable salad.
a Gismo used in lieu of technical name, also known as a gadget and doofunny.
in grandma low gear.
a gravel agitator infantryman.
the grey ghost commander's plane, the last ride on the government if you fail.
grinders teeth.
a griper always complaining.
that gripes me that gets me.
groan box radio.
a ground loop horizontal spin on landing plane.
a grouse chronic grumbler.
a grubber lowest ranks in the army, even one grade below a yardbird.
a grunt electrician's helper.
a guardhouse lawyer one who gives bad advice.
gun the potatoes might I trouble you for the potatoes?

H

half gone hungry.
to halt and freeze assume the position of attention.
hand cuff volunteer selective service draftee.
hand grenades hamburger.
handshaker Hi Sarge, have a cigar?
a hangar pilot mechanic who talks a great flight.

Hang it in and let 'er go! . . . war cry of Tank Corps.
hard money . . . silver coins.
a hardtail . . . an army mule, also known as a jughead.
hash stripes . . . enlistment stripes worn on sleeve.
a hatrack . . . a horse—also a hay-burner.
hay . . . sauerkraut.
headstone . . . the pillow.
a heap . . . an airplane, for variety called a bus, a crate and a job.
heart trouble . . . girl worry.
hedge hopping . . . low flying.
heeled . . . solvent. Sometimes known as "in the chips."
hell buggy . . . a tank.
to herd . . . to drive.
to herd a crate . . . to pilot a plane.
herdbound . . . soldier or animal unfit for further military service.
highball . . . salute.
higher than a Georgia pine . . .
flustered.
Hi Jackson . . . friendly exchange of greetings.
hip flask . . . a 45 cal. pistol.
hitch . . . an enlistment.
hit the fluffy whites . . . sleep in a civilian bed.
hit the silk . . . use a parachute.
hive . . . to discover, to catch. hobo . . . Provost Marshal.
a hoggie . . . a dollar.
a Hollywood Corporal . . . an acting corporal, sometimes called a gadget.
Holy Flaw! . . . ejaculation to relieve strong feelings. Clean if not completely satisfying.
holy Joe . . . the Chaplain.
a homing device . . . a leave of absence.
the honey wagon . . . the garbage truck.
the hook . . . any one of the three injections a soldier receives. an H P . . . a hot pilot, also called a gimper, a goopher and an eagle.

horizontal pleasure . . . sleep.
Horsecollar, Soldiers! . . . I do not wish to question the sincerity of your statement but might I suggest that you re-check the sources of information on which your affirmation is predicated.
horsing 'er down . . . swooping to scare pedestrians.
a hot crate . . . a speedy plane.
a housewife . . . rookies suspect horseplay here but it is a real sewing kit.
a hull thumper . . . a shell ejector.
I'm hurtin' . . . broke.

I

an icicle . . . a draftee—means a drip caught in the draft.
I'm a parachutist so I don't know . . . stock answer when a strange soldier asks directions.
he's in a flat spin . . . a bit touched.
in a storm . . . excited.
invisible paint for camouflage . . .
here we go again—a rookie's merry-go-round.
Irish grapes . . . potatoes.
iron . . . any silver coin.
the iron horses . . . tanks.
iron ponies . . . motorcycles.

J

jack . . . money.
jam up . . . swell, excellent.
he's jammy . . . very lucky.
a jawbone . . . a soldier who is great on theory but poor on practice.
got it on jawbone . . . on credit.
jazzing it . . . diving close to the ground.
a Java driver . . . tank driver who develops trouble in every town.
Jeep . . . reconnaissance truck, also known as a jitterbug.
Jeepville . . . recruit center. In some camps a jeep is a rookie.

he's jeepy....not quite all there.
Jeeter....2nd Lieutenant.
Jerries....German planes.
she's a neat job....a comely female.
Joe Blow....means any soldier.
John L's....woolen underwear, sometimes called Long Johns.
joy wagon....airplane used for practice.
juice shooter....fast code sender.
a jumping jeep....autogiro with jump take-off.
a Jumping Jesus....a Chaplain with the Paratroops.
jungle money....canteen checks.

K

the kangaroo....sergeant of the guard.
keep your nose down on the turns
take it easy.
keep your tail clear....away from enemy gun sights.
keeps dainty....well behaved, refined young lad. Whoo hoo!
Kelly's eye....one only.
Kendall did it....used to prove all things. Shining example of model soldier who accomplishes wonders in studying army regulations. Also used in buck passing. Good for alibis.
kennel rations....meat loaf or hash.
key to the flagpole....more keys get lost in the army than any-place.
key to the parade grounds....
 rookies are sent to find it.
key to the rifle range....yep, you guessed it.
khakiwacks....soldiers, kick into a maneuver....dodge fire from rear.
the kid....co-pilot in a bomber.
kip....bed.
a kiwi....a bunk pilot.
knocked off....stolen.

knock off....please refrain from talking.
knuckle buster....Crescent wrench. to go on K P duty....to pitch in and assist the cook wherever possible in the preparation and serving of food. To bring to shining brilliance the cooking utensils. To mop and scrub in cheery manner.
 Yes—you bet!

L

he's a bit lacy....girlish.
laid out for inspection....unconscious for any reason.
a lance-jack....acting corporal or acting gadget.
Shall we exercise the landing gear?
take a walk?
lapping it up....quaffing beer in vigorous fashion.
a latrinegram....a wild rumor.
a latrine rumor....an unsubstantiated tale.
a latrine sergeant....an enlisted man who takes it upon himself to issue orders.
the laundry....faculty boards. They wash flyers out.
lawnmower....a razor, sometimes called the scraper.
laying their eggs....bombers at work.
laying track....speeding in a tank.
a Leatherneck....a Marine. leaving calling cards....bombers unloading.
leggings stretcher....rookies hunt in vain to locate one. Clean fun. let her eat!....keep the tank advancing.
lid....apprentice signal operator.
lighthouses....salt and pepper shakers.
little poison....37 mm gun.
little Wolf....corporal.
L'il Abners....army shoes, also groundhogs or bundockers.

the limp line . . . soldiers reporting for sick call.
live ammunition . . . no fooling.
loop him . . . sock him.
pass Lot's wife . . . the salt.
lower the boom . . . sock somebody.
low on amps and voltage . . . out of ambition and ideas.
lumber . . . toothpicks.

M

machine oil . . . syrup for pancakes. made a forced landing . . . slipped and fell.
a Mae West . . . a buoyant life saving jacket that slips on like a vest—and—well, you get the idea.
Maggie's drawers . . . a red flag on the firing range indicates that the shot has missed the target completely.
Malum . . . I understand. (India). marfak . . . butter, also known as salve.
he hasn't many marbles . . . brains.
maneuvers . . . a soldier's way with a lass.
Matilda . . . blanket roll.
a Me . . . a Messerschmitt plane.
the meat box . . . front gun turret on a bomber.
meat wagon . . . ambulance.
mechanical rats . . . two-way loud speaker system connecting barrack sleeping quarters with non-commissioned officer's room. Prevents privacy.
mess gear . . . eating utensils.
call Mercy ooo . . . advice given to a wailer—supposed to be Chaplain's number.
an M G . . . a machine gunner.
mice . . . small balls of lint which appear on the floor during inspection. They roll around until they are noticed, the company penalized, then they disappear until next inspection. Uncanny, I call it.

mill . . . airplane motor.
a Milwaukee goiter . . . obesity at the waistline.
misery pipe . . . bugle.
a mitt flopper . . . a yes man, caters to officers, salutes unnecessarily.
Model T Sergeant . . . soldier with Technician 3rd Class Rating. the Mona . . . moaning of an air raid alarm.
money bags . . . paymaster.
a moonburn . . . searchlight drill.
moongazers . . . aircraft warning companies.
mothballs . . . recruits.
a Mother McCrea . . . a sad story for an alibi.
motorized foot locker . . . bantam car.
motorized freckles . . . cooties, also known as mobile dandruff or mechanized moles.
a mousetrap . . . submarine.
an M.P. . . . military police—soldiers invested with authority to enforce orders.
muck in . . . share it.
a mustard . . . a smart pilot.
a muster button . . . you have to have one to wear on your uniform to show the paymaster that you have been mustered into Federal service, otherwise you won't get your check—and a rookie is aboard the merry-go-round again.

N

napoo . . . no more.
Nappy . . . the company barber.
N B G . . . no blankety good.
N. G.'s . . . National Guardsmen in Federal service.
nibby . . . nose, unduly inquisitive.
he's a night bomber . . . playboy.
a go day wonder . . . newly commissioned 2nd Lieutenant. nipper . . . a recruit, also known as a dumbjohn.

a non com.... a non-commissioned officer.
North Dakota rice.... hot cereal.

O

O A O.... the One and Only girl.
O D.... olive drab, also Officer of the Day.
Off and On!.... unofficial command meaning off your bed and on your feet.
off the beam.... acting wild.
climb into the office.... the cockpit.
Old Faithful.... soldier who sets fuse range.
old file.... old soldier. Also known as old issue, old settler and retread.
old foggy pay.... extra pay for service after 4 years.
old issue.... peacetime soldier still in.
old soldier.... a 17 in blackjack.
are you on the beam?.... O. K.? on the bit.... cavalry term meaning alert.
on instruments.... drunk.
on the line.... all orders executed.
on the Oriental.... brought to task.
On the wall!.... wanted on the 'phone.
one striper.... private first class.
an onion.... a dope or a wet blanket.
onions.... anti-aircraft blasts.
an oojah.... a gadget.
out on a rhubarb.... ground strafing from a plane.
the Outfit.... your organization.
he got an outside loop.... the run-around.
Over the Hill.... desertion.
over the hump.... retirement after 30 years.

P

pack drill.... extra drill as punishment.

all packed up.... dead.
Padre.... chaplain. Often called a sky scout.
paint remover.... coffee.
a panhandler.... hospital orderly.
a pantywaist.... a sissy.
panther blood.... raw liquor.
paper nickels.... canteen checks.
parted his teeth.... scored a bull's-eye.
Paul Prys.... anti-aircraft searchlights.
you'd better pay your rent.... lay off the ladies.
a pearl diver.... a dishwasher on K. P. a pearl handle.... machine rolled cigaret.
pea shooter.... pursuit plane.
pea shooter.... rifle.
pea soup.... thick fog.
to peel off.... to leave.
peep.... bantam car, the son of a Jeep.
peep show.... stripped physical examination.
perch.... a sucker.
Per diem hill.... New Delhi, India.
persuader.... inertia starter switch.
pick up your brass.... get out of the way.
pillow pigeons.... bed bugs.
pill rollers.... enlisted men of Medical Corps.
pilot.... duty on the picket line in the cavalry.
pineapple.... hand grenade.
pipeline.... spaghetti.
he got pipped.... shot—or he got a packet.
pitching a leave.... mildly intoxicated.
a plow jockey.... mounted man in the cavalry.
pocket lettuce.... currency, sometimes called happy cabbage.
police up.... clean up generally, a good old army term that can mean picking up cigaret butts, making your bed or shining your shoes.

ponton nickels....coupons good at the post exchange.
Popeye....spinach.
popsicle....motorcycle, also known as a puddle jumper.
to porpoise....land in a series of bounces.
posh....bright and polished.
post exchange....a general merchandise store—not a second hand lumber yard as rookies learn when they try to swap fence posts. Under orders, of course. Another bit of clean army fun.
a pot massager....helping the cook clean up. Excellent training for a soldier. Later on he will make some man a good wife.
pour on coal....give it more gas.
pour the good gulf to her....speed up the tank.
pozy....jam.
in a prairie dog snarl....mine cables fouled.
prang....a plane crack-up which could have been avoided. The Order of the Prang is composed of pilots who lose planes through carelessness. Imaginary.
pressing blankets....sleep.
he made a pretty perch....good landing.
prodges....projectiles.
to promote....gain something by doubtful means, also to snitch or kipe.
propeller wash....a very unlikely story.
the ptomaine domain....the mess-hall.
pukka gen....the truth.
to pull guard duty....to do guard duty. For instance, "I've got to pull K. P." to pull the rank on him....tell him who you are—a waste of time with M. P.'s.

punk....bread.
puttee....bandage.
P X....post exchange, a general store for soldiers.
PX me....send out my arrival or departure (air corps).

Q

Q Company....recruit receiving center.
a quail roundup....army dance.
a quartermaster gait....a step longer than the 30 inch regulation pace. Saves shoes.
quiff....a young girl. Also known as a queen or quail.
a quirk....a flying student.
quit racing your motor....calm down.

R

rabbit food....cole slaw, lettuce, celery.
rabbit fever....flinching when pulling trigger on firing range.
in Rachel....in high gear.
R.A.F.....Royal Air Force.
raincoat chevrons....great fun on rainy days to send a rookie out to locate some.
rake....comb.
ranked out....forced to relinquish to a senior.
rate happy....a recently promoted non-commissioned officer full of authority.
rat race....mounted review.
rat trap....anti-aircraft barrage.
raunchy....anything in bad condition.
a read-off....a prisoner's sentence read to him at a formation—also a bawling out by an officer.
a Rebel....a Southern girl.
Red legs....Field Artillery soldier.
red nose....shrapnel.

red lined pay held up for a month.
to reed up to re-enlist.
to re-enlist bunk gently tuck covers in place to avoid re-making.
a refugee a raw recruit.
refugees from a self-defense factory lately arrived selectees who had been deferred by the draft boards. Often called handcuff volunteers.
the regimental monkey drum major.
ride the beam assume innocence.
riding the sick boot feigning illness.
Rise and Shine! a cordial invitation to leave your bunk and greet the rosy dawn. Usually followed by, "Get the lead out of your pants!"
he got the rocker said when a buck sergeant gets promoted to staff sergeant. It implies a staff sergeant does his work in a rocking chair.
everything is Roger O K roll up your flaps! your discourse is most interesting and I should enjoy hearing more about it preferably at another time. rooty medal awarded for rooting in rations for many enlistments. Imaginary.
rubber cow dilatable balloon.
rubber elephant ballovet balloon.
rubber flag sounds very logical for use on rainy days so rookie starts search. Even Majors have been known to suggest places to try. Rookie gets wet but smart.
rudily doo not worth a damn.
run the guard get in and out of camp without permission.

S

sabotaged German measles.
St. Vitus davenport tank.

to salavate to knock out.
salve butter.
sand and specks salt and pepper.
sand rat soldier on duty back of rifle targets.
I'll fix him a sandwich get even with him.
sanitation engineer latrine orderly.
a Santa Claus in the pits good target record.
a satchel a fat boy.
the saw bones army doctors.
a scramble a dogfight. R.A.F.
the screen house detention ward.
scrounge pilfer.
a sea-going bell hop a Marine.
a Sears and Roebuck Lieutenant newly commissioned 2nd Lieutenant —also known as a shavetail.
see cum saw I know how.
see the Chaplain! I greatly regret that there is nothing I can do to assist you. Nor do I think of any department in the army to which to refer you with your irksome complaints. Being a gentleman, I hesitate to tell you to shut your face. So may I suggest that you see the Chaplain.
the self commencer engine hand crank.
serum a slug of liquor.
sewer trout white fish.
a shack a soldier's sweetheart.
shackles stew.
a shack man a married soldier.
shack stripe the staff sergeant's extra stripe on sleeve. It permits him to keep a house or shack off the post.
shell shoveller inserts shell and pushes into breach.
shell twister puts shell in fuse cutter.
shimmy pudding jello.
shinos khaki uniforms.
shivering Liz Jello again.
shoot a line boasting.

a short circuit between the ear phones
 a mental lapse.
short stopping stopping a plate in transit to a soldier and taking off food.
shot down in flames jilted by the girl friend.
a shot put a hand grenade.
pass the shrapnel grape nuts.
a shutter-bug aerial photographer.
pass the side arms sugar and cream.
side meat well pleased.
pass the side slip bread and butter.
a silent pianist typist.
silver platters destroyers.
a sinker down draft of wind.
a six and 20 tootsie oomph girl
 —a date means over-staying leave with resultant loss of six merits and added penalty of 20 hours in the bull pen.
skirmish line rookies try to locate six feet of it—irrepressible army humor.
skirt patrol looking for dames.
sky hooks hooks onto a cloud to hold targets for anti-aircraft guns.
 When ordered to locate some,
 rookie should keep a straight face and go over to the library for the afternoon.
a sky winder member of air force.
a slacker a pal who won't entertain another girl so you can be alone with your girl friend.
a slick soldier dressed for date.
slig goop. Meaning Sucker, Lowbrow, Idiot and Good-will-buster. sling shot 45 cal. pistol.
slipping the clutch criticizing.
slum army stew.
slum burner cook.
I smell a dead rabbit inelegant reference to body odor.
pass the smelling salts onions.
S M R L H Soldier's Mail, Rush
 Like Hell.

snafu situation normal—normal being all balled up.
a snake ranch a bar.
snap-snap on the double.
snore sack sleeping bag.
snow bunny a beginner in the ski troops.
a snow job extreme prevarication.
snow me tell me something cheerful even if untrue.
a Snuffy member of the awkward squad.
Soap Suds Row the non-commissioned officer's homes with the clothes line landscaping.
social security garters.
soft legs WACs.
soft soaper pen to write girl friend.
S O L sure out of luck—for example, trying to fold a pup tent in the wind.
S O S same old stew.
to sound off to speak up.
a soup job a speedy plane.
the spiff bar local beer garden.
a spiggoty a native of the banana countries—"me no spiggoty eeng-leesh."
spin it retire.
Spits RAF planes.
spittoon steel helmet.
a spoof cigaret.
spooning up polishing up the shoes and buttons.
spud call invitation to participate in the kitchen activities. going on a splursh going on maneuvers.
a squeecker a pigeon.
the squinter gunner corporal who looks through sights.
the squirrel cage consultation room of an army psychoanalyst.
take on another stack re-enlist.
stag sentry duty.
a star gazer the General's orderly.
the starvation seat last seat at table.

station master . . . commanding officer at air field.
a steel helmet . . . a bedpan.
to stick your nose in the trough . . . to dine.
stinko . . . whimsical term to describe one who has imbibed strong liquor to excess.
stocks and bonds . . . toilet tissue.
strooging . . . cruising in plane.
stove pipe . . . trench mortar.
to strafe . . . to punish.
strawberries . . . prunes.
strictly cut plug . . . well pleased.
stuffed cloud . . . mountain concealed by clouds.
stukas . . . Georgia mosquitoes.
a submarine . . . a bedpan.
the sucker list . . . roster.
a sugar report . . . letter from the girl friend.
the super-duper . . . directional height finder for anti-aircraft.
Superman drawers . . . long woolens.
survey . . . trade old for new or telling the messman to survey (refill) an empty bowl.
a super-doooper . . . airplane listening device.
suitcase drill . . . packing for a furlough.
swampseed . . . rice.
to sweat . . . to expect.
sweat it out . . . make an intensive search for a lost article even though previous search has been made.
swinging the lead . . . shirking.
sympathy checks . . . counsel from the Chaplain.

T

take the foot locker out of your mouth
 . . . say what you mean.
tail skid . . . lamb chops.
take off . . . leave.
got a take off . . . got bawled out.
tangle in the soup . . . lost in fog.
a Tanker . . . the Tank Corps.

a tar heel . . . a Southern soldier.
taxi up . . . come up here.
tea cakes . . . hardtack.
Teak . . . O. K., fine. (India). tell it to the Marines . . . O yeah?
ten o'clock duty . . . a soft detail.
tent stretcher . . . a rookie has to learn.
changing tack . . . using new maneuvers on girl friend.
termites . . . radio personnel.
that stuff's got to come to a focus . . . cease the idle chit chat and get to the point, or show results.
a three point landing . . . ham and eggs.
three seventy . . . a day's wages. It refers to three meals and seventy cents in cash.
a three striped private . . . newly made sergeant.
threw the book at him . . . unlucky soldier is put on every detail.
Third Lieutenant . . . Sergeant.
a thirty-year-man . . . plans to retire after thirty years and live on retirement pay.
throttle twisters . . . motorcycle riders.
thumbs up . . . O. K.
got my ticket . . . discharge.
tin drawers . . . cowlings on wheels or fenders.
a tin ear . . . slow code receiver.
tin hat . . . steel helmet.
tire patches . . . pancakes.
Titeems . . . the British tea time you know, so I must pop off. Cheerio and all that jolly rot.
Tommy . . . Thompson sub-machine gun.
toot . . . money.
toothpick village . . . new type wooden barracks.
top dog . . . the center of attention.
the Top Kick . . . First Sergeant. Also Top Knocker.
torps . . . torpedoes.
torture hats . . . gas masks.
a tough row of buttons to shine . . . hard job.

trainasium pipe structure for physical exercises, sometimes called a monkey cage.
pass the transfusion ketchup.
a T S a tough situation.
tub scout car.
turkey the meat course, even if it's hash.
a Turks Head McGurk Coast Artilleryman skilled in tying knots.
the turrethead director of tank movement.
a twenty per cent man usurious money lender.
two dots and a dash fried eggs and bacon.
two legged mavericks privates.
type C canned rations issued for maneuvers.

U

underground balloon corpse where a dissatisfied soldier can transfer and find ideal conditions. Imaginary.
have to brush my underwear get ready for inspection.

V

vackie evacuee.
vampire hospital orderly who draws blood for testing.
victory girls 'teen age girls who are khaki-wacky.
a vulture a semi-trained pilot.

W

wads cakes.
Wahoo Hawaii.
the wailing wall the Chaplain's office.
the Waldorf the mess hall.
a walkie-talkie a portable radio.

walking dandruff cooties. Also known as seam squirrels.
the water scorcher cook.
the ward mama hospital nurse.
hanging the wash flunked air cadet hangs a clothespin on a line in the mess hall to denote he has his wash out—or dismissal.
a washtub ride test flight with commanding officer. The plane chosen is known as the washtub and failure is a washout.
watch that stuff take it easy.
the weather krock the meteorologist.
wet canteen beer on sale.
When does the balloon go up? when does the big show start?
a whistle jerk acting corporal.
white eyed passed out.
white money silver coins.
a wimpie a hamburger.
to win something to steal something.
he's in a wind up dizzy.
winterized tents squad tents equipped with wooden walls, floors and stoves.
wire city the dear old jail.
plenty of woodle the girl has loads of charm.
wolf call Hi'Ya, Babe!
wood butcher carpenter.
Who pulled your chain? courteous retort implying that the fellow is a monkey.

Y

a Y B a yard bird, a misfit.
a yard bird soldier restricted to limited area—a disciplinary measure.
a yard engine an officer's daughter.
a Yehudi a wild rumor.
yellow legs cavalryman.
yellow nose high explosives.

You can stay but that stuff's gotta go
.... lay off the boasting.
You have found a home.... used by colored boys towards a member who is getting on O.K. and seems to like army life.

Z

Zeppelins in a fog.... sausage and mashed potatoes.
zebras.... non-commissioned officers.
zip.... syrup.
Zombie.... dumb soldier.

NAVY SLANG

A

- A A F Atlantic Amphibious Force (combination of First Marine Division and an Army Division).
the Admiral's mate an egotistical sailor.
an Admiral's watch a sound sleep.
to go aft to the rear.
an Airedale naval aviation recruit.
an Aleutianatic not yet adjusted to normal duty.
all hands means everybody with-in hearing.
alligator amphibious tank.
amidships the middle or center.
the anchor man gets the lowest grades in classes.
angel juice water.
A O L absent over leave. Probably delayed by a brunette, tch tch. Or a blonde, tch tch tch. Or a red head, tch tch tch. That's terrible. By the way, what's her phone number?
the Arctic boat a refrigeration ship which carries the meat.
the armory gun maintenance shop aboard ship.
ash can a depth charge of high explosive intended for a submarine.
ashore where sailors meet girls?
the A squad the awkward squad where beginners begin.
astern the rear.
A to N study book for enlisted men. Excellent to hold in front of face while dozing.
awash barely above water.
A W O L absent without official leave. It takes a very good alibi to square this. If your grandmother wasn't really dead, you had better kill her.
aye aye, sir pronounced eye, eye.
A good, safe answer for anything.

It means, quite right, sir—just as you say, sir—very good, sir. You can have your way now, sir, and I'll have mine when I am alone, by Gad, sir.

B

- baffle painting ship camouflage; also known as dazzle daubed.
B and W bread and water.
a baluke a dopey gob.
a balute pronounced bal loot'. A Philippine egg before it is hatched. That's the way they eat them over there, no kidding.
bare navy canned food only.
a barnacle someone you can't lose.
a bar of B O soap.
a battlewagon a battleship or dreadnaught.
a BCD bad conduct record.
barber bait recruits.
the beach ashore anywhere. When a sailor is on the beach for keeps it means that he is through with the sea.
the bean rag pennant flown at mess time.
bear a hand let's have a little help.
beating the gums idle chit chat or gossip aboard ship. Also referred to as pounding the ivory, knashing the choppers or chipping the pickets.
beef boat supply ship.
beeno there will beeno moving pictures tonight; there will beeno liberty.
belay knock off whatever you are doing.
bells clocks are out in the Navy. Bells are sounded to tell time. It's simple. 2 bells mean 1 o'clock or 5 o'clock or 9 o'clock. All you have to do is figure out whether it is A.M. or P.M.

Here's the facts:

12.30 a. m.	1 bell.	a bell tapper a sailor who is slow to man his post.
1. a. m.	2 bells.	below any place below the top deck.
1.30 a. m.	3 bells.	the bends acute pains a diver gets if hoisted to the surface too rapidly.
2. a. m.	4 bells.	berth where the ship drops anchor.
2.30 a. m.	5 bells.	the Big Ticket honorable discharge.
3. a. m.	6 bells.	bilge the cellar of the ship.
3.30 a. m.	7 bells.	bilge water bragging or nonsense.
4. a. m.	1 bell.	the binnacle list the sick list.
4.30 a. m.	2 bells.	a bird boat aircraft carrier.
5. a. m.	3 bells.	the black gang the engineer's force.
5.30 a. m.	4 bells.	bleat in the ear relate hard luck.
6. a. m.	5 bells.	a blow storm.
6.30 a. m.	6 bells.	to blow the grampus to accidentally spill a bucket of water on a fellow you don't like.
7. a. m.	7 bells.	blue room cell in brig.
7.30 a. m.	8 bells.	to board to mount or scale. Gobs board busses or horses or mountains.
8. a. m.	1 bell.	boat falls ropes and pulleys.
8.30 a. m.	2 bells.	boat hook long pole with a hook on the end.
9. a. m.	3 bells.	"Boats" bos'n's mate.
9.30 a. m.	4 bells.	boatswain pronounced Bo'sn. An officer who directs the deck crew.
10. a. m.	5 bells.	a boatswain's chair still pronounced Bo'sn. A board seat with rope supports.
10.30 a. m.	6 bells.	on the books on the paymaster's records.
11. a. m.	7 bells.	a boot a newly enlisted sailor.
11.30 a. m.	8 bells.	a boot camp naval training station ashore where recruit gets six weeks of preliminary training.
Noon	1 bell.	boot topping marine paint which serves as protective coating.
12.30 p. m.	2 bells.	bottom outside of ship underneath.
1. p. m.	3 bells.	bound headed for.
1.30 p. m.	4 bells.	the bow pronounced as if spoken by a dog. Front of ship.
2. p. m.	5 bells.	the bow man sits in front end of boat. Jumps out on landing and ties up.
2.30 p. m.	6 bells.
3. p. m.	7 bells.
3.30 p. m.	8 bells.
4. p. m.
4.30 p. m.
5. p. m.
5.30 p. m.
6. p. m.
6.30 p. m.
7. p. m.
7.30 p. m.
8. p. m.
8.30 p. m.
9. p. m.
9.30 p. m.
10. p. m.
10.30 p. m.
11. p. m.
11.30 p. m.
Midnight

the brass gold stripes on an Officer's sleeve.
breaker emergency drinking water and rations.
break out to take out or open up.
 A gob breaks out his money, cigars, gear, playing cards and all things else. A salty term as old as the Navy.
a brick a muscular girl who won't stand any friendly fooling.
the brig a steel compartment aboard ship where a sailor can be alone with his thoughts. You guessed it—the jail.
brig-bait involuntary virgins under legal age.
a brigtimer a prisoner.
brightwork metalwork on ship which must be polished.
a broken striper a Chief Warrant Officer.
a brown bagger married man. Sometimes called a commutator.
a brown nose an officer's favorite.
Brown's mixture passed out freely at the dispensary for coughs.
"Bugs" a bugler.
a bulkhead known as a wall to landlubbers.
the bumwad home town newspaper. Also called the bugle or bladder.
bundockers field shoes.
busted demoted or disrated.
a buzzard eagle insignia on sleeve.

C

the cabin the Captain's stateroom.
to calk off to sleep.
a canary a beautiful, glamorous girl with long eyelashes and soft, red lips, with an affectionate disposition, very soft and cuddly and warm. Gosh, I wonder if I could get liberty this afternoon.
C. and S. clean and sober.
the canteen retail store aboard ship.

the captain of the head a doubtful honor conferred on a sailor when appointed to paint and clean in the washroom.
the captain of the hold a title given an enlisted man while temporarily in charge of cleaning up the hold, issuing paint and brushes, etc.
the captain's writer enlisted man serving as secretary to the Captain.
casemate gun compartment.
catapult heaves aircraft skywards.
cat fever catarrhal or acute fever.
to catch the tide seize the opportunity.
channel sickness home sickness.
Chaplain duty consoling a cry baby.
the Chaplain's mate a sympathetic sailor. A gentle soul.
Charlie Noble a model, mythical sailor. Also, the galley smokestack.
cheap liberty to gaze longingly at the shore through binoculars.
a Chicago piano multiple anti-aircraft gun.
a chicken a young recruit.
chicken farm sailors always dream of owning a chicken and egg farm upon retirement.
Chico Philippino.
Chief chief petty officer.
a chipping hammer for chipping paint and barnacles off the ship.
Chips name for the carpenter's mate. Sometimes called Nails.
a chit official order on storeroom.
cigar box fleet landing craft carrying infantry, vehicles and small tanks to the beach.
clay pigeons Navy scout plane for catapulting. clews ropes which support the hammocks in which the sailors sleep at night. Sailors sleep in hammocks, my dear. Really. Didn't you know? Yes, and in their underwear, too. Isn't that adorable.
The Club USO centers.

he coiled up his ropes passed on.
he told him cold with absolute finality.
collision mats waffles or hot cakes.
comeshaw gift of Navy owned goods.
commissary bullets beans.
a compartment in a hotel it would be a room.
companionways hallways.
the course in a meadow it would be a cowpath.
covered wagon aircraft carrier, also a flat-top.
cow grease butter.
Coxswain pronounced Kox'en.
 Head man on a small boat.
a coxswain of the plow kox'en.
 A raw sailor from the farm.
to crab complain.
a crow a female ashore who lacks pulchritude.
a crow or bird on arm a rate.
crapping out sleeping during work hours, or shooting craps.
crop dusters Cal-Aero school training planes.
a cruise a term of enlistment.
C S C Continuous Service Certificate. At the end of a career in the Navy they give you your official record set down in a small book. It shows where you have been all your life.
the cut of his jib looks of a sailor.
a cutthroat overly ambitious sailor, also called a number jumper.

D

D and D drunk and dirty.
to darken ship cut all lights which would reveal presence of ship.
the deck floor.
a deck ape is a seaman lay in some arnica and a slice of raw beef before using it, however.
a decoy a fine looking sailor. Girls are attracted by his manliness. This gives you a chance to get acquainted and explain some of the more cultural aspects of the Navy, you slicker!

deep sea turkey salmon.
a discharge gratuity a man who is discharged for inaptitude is given a civilian suit of clothes and some cash to help him along.
ditty box for keepsakes.
do a bunk make a fast getaway from an embarrassing situation.
Dobel's gargle regularly dispensed for sore throats.
"Doc" a pharmacist's mate.
a dodo a coquette who will not accept the old age pension.
doozy easy; agreeable.
doping off doing indifferent work.
a dough puncher a baker, also known as "Dough-head."
take an overland draft desertion.
she's a drag she is here with an escort.
dragging anchor to take the wife along.
dream sack hammock.
dress blues the best suit. Kept to go ashore.
dress whites same thing for the tropics.
dress ship on legal holidays flags are strung from masts and rigging.
drift around kill time.
duff anything edible and sweet.
dummy run dress rehearsal.
a dynamo buster electrician.

E

E painted on a stack signifies excellent work of engineering crew. When painted on a turret it means a great gun crew.
an eager beaver lad in classroom who knows right answer first, and shows up his classmates. Cordially unpopular.
eager beaver a compliment when meaning a WAVE. They command admiration for their alertness.

the day the eagle screams pay-day.
an ear flopper over eager to please officers.
going East assigned to duty on the Atlantic seaboard. Going to the coast means duty on the Pacific coast.
84 well-known Navy prison on Mare Island.
Ensign newly commissioned officer from Annapolis.
EPD extra police duty and police duty means scrubbing, polishing, etc.
the Exec the Executive Officer who runs the ship under the Captain's supervision. to extend the enlistment let it run on past term signed for.

F

to make fast tie it up.
a fat lip a sock in the puss.
a feather a leak of steam from the boiler safety valve.
a feather merchant a Naval Reservist, sometimes called a "Reverse."
a Femmy a flirtatious girl—easy to know and hard to forget.
field day clean and polish day.
fire and fall back state your case and be brief.
fire and rescue party sailors assigned to the fire department.
first luff the First Lieutenant.
fish a torpedo.
a five for sixer money lender aboard ship.
Flags the signal quartermaster.
flaked out reclining on back.
flashed his hash sea sickness, retching.
a flivver a small destroyer.
a flying coffin a PBV Navy patrol bomber.

a floating coffin a poor boat.
foo foo perfume.
a forecandle lawyer a gob who professes to know all Navy regulations.
48 widely known Navy prison in the Philippines.
go forward towards the front of the ship.
all fouled up messed up.
four-oh 4-O, means perfect, O. K., tops.
a four stacker old U S destroyer.
a four striper Captain.
French leave to leave the ship without permission.
a fresh water wrench fun to send a recruit after.
funnels smokestacks.
furlough liberty exceeding 72 hours.

G

the galley the ship's kitchen.
a galley rumor widespread rumor without foundation.
gallots eggs.
Gangway make way for a sailor.
G C M General Court Marshal. The highest Navy court. gear tools; knife and fork; your clothes; most everything.
gedunk ice cream sodas, etc.
gig the Captain's private boat.
a gilgadget a gilhickey or a gimmick or a gadget. Anything which eludes a sailor's descriptive powers.
a gilligen hitch an imaginary knot in an imaginary rope.
give a fair wind pass the butter.
give it the deep six toss overboard.
a gob a familiar name for a sailor. Either sailor or gob are O. K. Just don't call me a Jack Tar, honey, because that gets me. going over going ashore.
going dogging Wine, Women and Song.

the Gold Braid Commissioned Officers. gone native a sailor overfriendly with the natives at foreign ports.
goo goos natives of the Philip-pines.
Gooks South Sea natives.
gooney gals young native girls.
gouge to cheat.
grass lettuce, asparagus, etc.
gravity tank water receptable.
grease to give present to superiors.
grease down table etiquette for pass the butter.
the greasepot the cook.
green weinie anything bad.
to gripe complain.
a gull a girl ashore who has lost her amateur standing.
a gulpin someone you don't like.
gundecking pretending intoxication.
gunk dissolves oil from the ship's sides.
"Guns" gunner's mate.
a Gymnascutus a ship's mascot found in foreign lands. It has legs shorter on one side than the other enabling it to walk decks in rough weather. Imaginary.
a gyrene a Marine; also known as a Leatherneck and a sea-going bell-hop.

H

a hack driver chief petty officer.
to hail a very nautical term meaning hello.
"hammock happy" recovering from a stretch in the brig.
hammock ladder imaginary accessory used to baffle recruits. hammock a sailor's downy couch aboard ship. A piece of canvas hung up at night and rolled up in the daytime. It saves messing around with bedsteads and springs and mattresses and pillows. A new recruit finds sleeping in a hammock as simple as riding an outlaw horse in a rodeo, with the exception that a deck is harder than ground.

a hangfire a shot which doesn't go off.
hanging fire pending.
a hard nose refers to an officer who doesn't get along with enlisted men.
hardtack emergency rations.
hash marks service stripes.
hatch doorway.
down the hatch a signal for the stomach to brace itself against an incoming slug of rum.
have legs speed it.
hawser an immense rope used to tie up the ship.
head lavatory.
heave in sight to appear in the distance.
"heave out and lash up" "Come, gentlemen, promptly arise or you'll miss the gorgeous sunrise, and be so good as to put the hammocks away neatly. Thank you. Lovely morning, isn't it?"
the Hell cats the bugle corps.
a high fog the usual unusual California weather.
Hi Mac, where you from? greeting extended to new arrivals at a naval training station.
hit the beach ashore on leave.
hit the pavement go ashore.
hit the sack sleep.
the home port where the ship bases.
a homeward-bound pennant flown on the homeward voyage after an extended foreign cruise. It is made by the crew and is a foot long for each member.
the honey barge comes alongside for garbage.
to put in a hop befuddled.
H P H high paid help, spoken of petty officers with extra shore allowances.

a horse fly a sailor who is fickle about women and not very choosy.
Houligan navy Coast Guard.
git a hump on you speed up.
have you got a hump on you? stake me to a cigaret.

I

inactive duty Naval Reserve or fleet reserve.
infantry walking Hell.
an infantryman a blisterfoot.
Irish pennants sloppy loose ends which should be tucked in.
iron man trophy won in athletics.
isolation ward hospitalization for contagious diseases.

J

Jack friendly buildup for a sailor. Used prior to a touch by a panhandler.
a jack ladder hemp ladder thrown over side of ship.
a smokestack jag feigning intoxication after two beers. Practiced by very young recruits to convince themselves that they are old salts.
Jimmylegs master at arms. A sort of cop.
Joe Gish any sailor.
jo pot coffee urn.
the joy ride trip to the naval hospital in an ambulance.
to jump ship go ashore without leave.

K

kanooing a sailor's recreation. He gets away from it all by hunting up a lake where they rent boats; rows all afternoon in the hot sun, falls overboard and has to be rescued.

the Katzenjammers the shakes the morning after.
"Keys" storekeeper.
a kick-out a dishonorable discharge often called a Yellow Ticket.

L

ladder made of iron or rope and takes the place of stairs.
a landlubber anybody who sleeps in a bed.
what's the lash up? set-up or organization.
late blast last call.
lay aft on the fantail let's you and me fight.
leave vacation.
Leche fresh milk.
leg one tack to windward or the distance and course covered in one tack.
liberty shore leave under 48 hours.
liberty card official approval card.
liberty clothes the best dress blues. Gobs used to change into civilian clothes ashore but you get more now in a sailor suit.
liberty hound a lad who tries to spend his enlistment ashore.
a limey British sailor.
line rope.
liquid lightning Okulehau, pronounced o koo'ly how. Sugar cane and rice beverage made in Hawaii. Three drinks make you wicky wacky better than a native.
locker a sailor's chest of drawers, chiffonier, bureau and clothes closet.
log the ship's diary.
loot bag small bag carried ashore.
lucky bag store room for stray and miscellaneous articles.
the Luff Lieutenant Junior Grade.

M

"Mac" Hi yu', Mac? Where yu' from, Mac? Any sailor or Marine.

the mail buoy . . . Navy humor. Raw recruits write letters all night to be posted in the mail buoy. Non-existent. A buoy is a floating object anchored in position to indicate channels or dangerous rocks, etc.

man an oar . . . grab an oar. Man a broom, man a brush, same thing. Just plain work.

man overboard . . . means a sailor took an involuntary bath in the ocean.

Man-o'-war's man . . . $2.00 word for a gob.

mascot . . . live pets; dogs, cats, kangaroos, bears, snakes, leopards, white mice. Everything but cooties.

called to the mast . . . this is the same thing as on report. It means a serious talk with the Captain about shortcomings—and I don't mean the Captain's.

matey . . . often heard ashore. Hi Matey, could you stake the old man to a cup of coffee? How about a match, Matey? A dime wouldn't break you, would it, Matey?

meal pennant . . . flown to indicate that the crew is busy with the knives and forks and no other work is being done.

a meat ball . . . pennant flown to indicate excellence in some field. Often athletics.

a member of the pal's club . . . a gob loose from the brig. An escape.

mess . . . meals.

mess gear . . . plates, knives, forks and spoons.

midnight small stores . . . to borrow another's clothes from the line under cover of darkness.

a military wedding . . . nuptials where the male parent wears fire-arms.

misery hall . . . emergency dressing station.

I've got the mokers . . . the blues; depressed.

monkey drill . . . calisthenics.

monkey island . . . small platform over bridge.

mosquito boat . . . light boat, very speedy and equipped with small guns.

a mothball . . . lad wearing first issue of clothing.

muck up . . . clean up.

the mud hook . . . the anchor.

a musical Marine . . . member of the band.

muster . . . roll call.

mystery balls . . . meat balls.

N

a navy cocktail . . . castor oil gullupp-gullupp-gullupp UGH!

the Navy Cross . . . awarded for honor and bravery.

Navy Day . . . open house for land visitors. Teddy Roosevelt's birthday.

a Neptune Certificate . . . given in ceremony on Equator.

nitty . . . row or squabble.

O

an oil slick . . . streak left on surface by the exhaust of a submarine.

the Old Man . . . the Captain or often referred to as the Skipper.

omnibus boat . . . you ride to shore in it when you get liberty.

one and a half striper . . . Lieutenant Junior Grade.

one striper . . . an Ensign, the starting grade for Commissioned Officers.

on report . . . means that you will have to explain to the Captain why you did something wrong.

on the stock . . . suspense awaiting definite information.

orderly . . . errand boy for an officer.

ordinary seaman . . . seaman second class.

ordnance . . . guns; ammunition, etc.

THE BROWN NOSE
GOT IT STRAIGHT
FROM THE HEAD,..
WE HIT THE BEACH
AT EIGHT BELLSON
A 72.

GOT ANY SMUKES?
WE'LL SHOVE OFF
AND GO DOGGING.
I KNOW A COUPLE OF GULLS IN A JITNEY-
CREEP. TWO SMOOTH
SMOOGING
CANARIES

SLACK-
OFF, HORSE-FLY.
BEENO.

O to Z . . . study book for commissioned officers.
the outfit . . . your Navy.
overnight liberty . . . gives a gob a chance to sleep in a bed—that is, if he gets a chance to lie down.

P

paint . . . first you put it on and then you chip it off.
painter . . . ropes which tie a boat up.
a paluka . . . sometimes called a gumbo. Not a pal.
your part of the ship . . . a certain area reserved for you—to keep clean.
patrol . . . sailors sent ashore to watch over gobs on liberty.
pea coat . . . waist length heavy blue jacket. Gobs would rather freeze than wear them ashore.
a pelican . . . a hearty eater.
peso . . . pronounced pay so. Spanish dollar used in the banana countries at various rates of exchange.
a pharmacist's mate . . . a cross between a sea-going druggist and a hospital orderly.
pie tickets . . . a green recruit who wishes pie, must get pie tickets from the paymaster. Of course, the paymaster is out so the recruit starts a tour. Somewhere along the line comes a great awakening.
pig boats . . . the submarines.
Pills . . . a hospital steward.
a Pingpong . . . a yeoman or clerical man.
pipe down . . . be quiet.
pipe him aboard . . . ancient Navy custom. The Boatswain's mate blows a shrill whistle in welcome.
a plank owner . . . a sailor with continuous service on one ship assumes ownership rights. Of course, as tax payers, we all own our Navy, but you can't claim any one ship as your very own. You know what I mean? the plotting room . . . where officers go into a huddle over maps and instruments.

a plowmaker's mate . . . an awkward recruit.
pogey bait . . . candy bars.
a politician . . . avoids work by social manipulations.
a pollywog . . . one who has not crossed the Equator on water.
porthole . . . a ship's window.
port side . . . left hand side.
pounding pitch . . . deck duty which requires constant walking.
P-rade . . . dress parade.
Priority No. 1 . . . sugar.
prize money . . . bonus to gun crew for excellent marksmanship.
punk . . . light bread.
a punt . . . a raft enabling a sailor to paint the waterline of a vessel.

Q

the quarter deck . . . the Captain's deck.
your quarters . . . where you hang your hammock.
quills . . . a yeoman or clerk.

R

the Radiator Club . . . a gathering to gossip.
to rag a gob . . . to razz him.
a rag picker . . . signal man.
the rail squad . . . seasick sailors executing an involuntary function of Nature.
the rake and pitch . . . rolling and pitching of ship. Must be reckoned with in target practice.
here comes the rank . . . Commissioned Officers.
your rate . . . your position or the work you perform.

S

- the ratey one the highest in rank.
 rat's nest lower forward bunk compartment.
- a read-off prisoner's sentence read publicly at mess, also a bawling out by an officer.
- the rear admiral the wife in the back seat of the automobile—Gosh, why can't she keep still? Or the cute girl on the tandem seat of a motorcycle. Are you all right back there, darling?
- red lead ketchup.
- Red Mike a woman hater.
- red rag the pennant flown during meals.
- reduction in rating demoted.
- the regular Navy not the Fleet Reserves, not the Coast Guard, not the Naval Reserves, but the Navy, you know, kid, THE NAVY.
- release from confinement out of the brig—Oh Boy, now to promote liberty and a couple of beers and a phone number or two.
- restriction means stay on board the ship because you were a bad boy.
- a retread a retired man called back into service.
- rewards fifty dollars for recovered torpedoes and deserters and twenty-five dollars for stragglers. Also, virtue is its own reward. Well, I guess I was thinking of something else there.
- feeling rhino sad, blue, discouraged and broke.
- a ridge runner Southerner.
- a ripe suck ripe sucker. An easy mark spoiling to be taken.
- a Ripple an enlisted WAVE.
- Rocks and Shoals Navy rules and regulations or what will happen to you if you don't keep your nose clean.
- a rope yarn Sunday a half holiday, usually Wednesday afternoon.
- a rubber gut a fat sailor.
- sack duty sleep. Slogan is "sighted sack, sank in same."
- to sack up go to bed.
- a Sadie Thompson pneumatic chipping hammer.
- Sails a sailmaker's mate.
- going salty recruit acting like an old timer.
- let go a salvo tell somebody off.
- sand takes the place of scouring powder.
- sand and canvas to clean up.
- sandpaper the anchor do unnecessary work.
- a satchel a gob with a wide mouth.
- scarf a sailor's necktie.
- scrambled eggs gold insignia on officers' caps.
- the scullery where the dishes are bathed.
- a scupper a lady of easy virtue.
- scuppers holes which drain water off the deck.
- the scuttlebutt drinking fountain.
- a scuttlebutt rumor anybody can start one but you wouldn't recognize it when it got back to you.
- Seabees Naval Construction Battalion.
- sea dust salt.
- sea going wise and experienced or used to impress landlubbers.
- a sea gull a flirtatious miss who follows the fleet up and down the coast from port to port. She is always hungry or needs new shoes.
- seagull aboard chicken.
- a sea lawyer always gives out advice about Navy regulations.
- sea legs to get to feel at home aboard ship.
- sea pie stew with a crust.
- sea sickness nausea caused by the odor of frying pork chops while you are swinging in a hammock on a rolling ocean.

sea weed spinach.
secure knock off.
send a fish discharge a torpedo.
a 72 liberty ashore for 72 hours.
shake a leg speed up. Also known as wicky-wicky, chop chop, moeey pronto or simply Git the lead out of your leggins.
a shake down trip a trial cruise.
Shanghai to get a man transferred to another ship against his inclination.
a sheep herder any landsman who disagrees with you.
one sheet in the wind slightly
drunk.
three sheets in the wind quite
drunk.
a shellback anyone who has crossed the Equator on the ocean.
shifting freckles cooties.
shin the chains to leave the ship without permission.
to ship enlist.
to ship over to re-enlist.
the ship's paper newspaper published aboard.
the ship's service store sells watches, belts, gloves, etc.
the ship's store sells candy, soap and cigars.
the ship's writer yeoman for the Executive Officer.
shivering Liz Jello. In the snow —means with cream.
to shoot the breeze exchange superfluities.
let's shove off let's go places and ring doorbells.
show a leg arise from your hammocks, merry gentlemen, let nothing you delay.
sick bay hospital aboard ship.
a sick-bay sailor becomes ill at the mention of work.
side boys honor guard of greeting.
the silver platters the destroyers.
Skibbies Japs.

skivvies long woolen drawers.
sky juice rain.
skylarking boondoggling.
slack off or simmer down; relax,
take it easy.
three sleeps ago three nights ago.
a sleighride recounting imaginary exploits.
sliding clothes wornout but saved
for dirty jobs.
slop chest receptacle used in port.
The honey barge collects it.
slop chute the garbage exit to the ocean. Ashore it refers to a non-descript beer joint.
slop shop galley.
Slushy the ship's cook.
a small beer an insignificant fellow who acts important.
a smoke preventer a very useful article aboard ship if you can just get a recruit to locate one. The trouble is that after they have gone around to a dozen or so officers, they get discouraged and start thinking it's a gag.
a smoker entertainment with prize fights or movies or vaudeville.
the smoking lamp is lit traditional seagoing term meaning it is all right to smoke.
smoozing petting.
smuke locker pocketbook or moneybelt.
smukes dollars.
snatch-holds a public dance hall.
Also called a jitney creep and a race-track.
Sneaky Pete alcohol used for mechanical purposes aboard ship.
Tastes awful even after a lemon extract chaser.
"Snipe" fireman.
soojee soapy water.
sounding off speaking well of yourself.
Sparks the wireless operator.

special liberty a trip ashore which is not rated. special money a draw on your wages between paydays. Hard to effect.
a speed run seeing town.
to spike the main brace take a drink of water—or make me an offer.
a spoon a pal in need.
spooning up spruce up the uniform.
a spud Cox'n peels potatoes.
a Square knot Admiral acting petty officer in a training camp.
a squirrel's nest a lad who is nuts.
Stamps the mail orderly.
to step off the plank to get married.
straddle a shot which hits in front of a target and skips over.
a straggler not a full fledged deserter but very much absent without leave.
straight as a deck seam honest and trustworthy.
"straight from the head" an idle rumor.
take a strain pull hard.
to strike try for promotion.
to stroke around go places ashore.
submarine ears slightly deaf.
shall we submerge board the sub-way.
sun dodger a sailmaker.
swab an oversize mop.
swabo zero.
a swabbo a blank.
swacked now look here, officer, he might have been a little illuminated or soused or lit or even crocked, binged, boiled, goofed up, mellow, bleary-eyed, stinko, rummed up, oiled, jagged, half-seas-over, inebriated, drenched, saturated or even intoxicated but he certainly wasn't drunk.
swamp seed rice.
swing ship calibrate the compass.

T

tailor mades dress blues made by a shore tailor.
take a blow a fireman leaves his duties for a breath of fresh air.
take the zephyr leave quickly.
to take on stores load the ship with supplies.
taking off speaking up angry like.
a tall water sailor has sailed every ocean.
tarfu everything fouled up.
a three striper Commander.
throw a louse on him he's worse than we are.
"thunder test" refers to physical requirements in the draft; if you can hear thunder, see lightning and drink milk, you're accepted as fit for duty. To be physically decrepit enough for rejection would permit two doctors to see each other by peering into your ears.
tide-watch non-existing duty. The first watch for a gullible boot.
a Tiffy goodlooking Navy nurse.
a tincus an habitual turf tamper.
topside the main deck.
top your boom shove off.
torps torpedoes.
trimming putting in extra hours trying for promotion.
turf tamping impatiently awaiting action.
turn to get on with the work.
turned to gold good conduct turns the red enlistment sleeve stripes to gold.
the Tuscarora a mythical ship with ideal conditions. Had thirteen decks, a straw bottom and rubber smoke stacks. Talked about to test the credulity of recruits.
going out on 20 retirement after twenty years' service.
Tunnyfish physical instructors under Gene Tunny's program.
a twidget a man.

a two-beer hasty . . . a respite from work, loafing.
a two and a half striper . . . lieutenant commander.
a two striper . . . a lieutenant.

U

uncover . . . remove cap for haircut inspection.
an Undetected Crime Medal . . . medal awarded for good conduct.
undress uniforms . . . for hard work. No stripes on collars and without cuffs.
up all hammocks . . . cheery words to awaken sailors to the day's new tasks. Hit the deck is another shout of encouragement that brings a gob up bright and early full of gaiety and jollity and renewed vigor—what brought this on?
shall we up anchor . . . leave.

V

a V-6 . . . lad who joined Navy to escape draft.
vessel man . . . pot washer.

W

wacky . . . sometimes called an Asiatic or a Shanghai. A gob who hasn't readjusted himself to ordinary duty.

a Wahini . . . a Honolulu maiden.
a watch . . . usually four hours of duty.
watch cap . . . black knitted stocking cap.
"Wheels" . . . quartermaster.
a wizard . . . a sailor who goes through a full cruise without being on report.
a wolf . . . a gob after gals.
wooden . . . dull.
worms . . . macaroni.
W. T. Door . . . gobs in China used to sign I O U's with the merchants over there and get credit. Instead of using their right names, they would sign W. T. Door. Years later the merchants discovered that W. T. Door was the abbreviation for water tight door, but it was fun while it lasted.

Y

the Y . . . the marine Y M C A.
a Y gun . . . a depth bomb thrower.
a Yellow Perial . . . training plane.
yippee boats . . . patrol boats.

Z

zip . . . zero.
Zoomies . . . pilot candidates.
zoot suit . . . camouflaged Marine's outfit with knee length coat and spotted design like a Leopard.

MARINE SLANG

A

- an apple knocker . . . a Marine who plays up to his superior officer.
armoured heifer . . . canned milk.
an Asiatic . . . a man who has spent much time on Asiatic stations. Relates thrilling tales on slight invitation. Ofttimes referred to as a man who missed too many boats.

B

- bathtub sailors . . . gobs on special duty who have never been on water.
battle pin . . . necktie collar pin. More important than trousers as Marines sometimes lose their pants but never their morale or battle pin.
bear a hand . . . give us a helping hand.
belly robber . . . a cook. Also known as a slum burner.
blanco . . . khaki colored cakes which dissolve for application to packs, cartridge belts and leggins.
blanket and freckles . . . the makin's.
blimp . . . a fat Marine.
blues . . . the prize possession of every Marine. Tailored to measure with smoothly draped shoulders, narrow hips, high collars, white belts and gay trimmings. Mothers grow misty-eyed with pride, girls swoon, small boys look hungrily at the polished buttons and an invisible band plays From the Halls of Montezuma to the Shores of Tripoli when a Marine swaggers down the stem in BLUES!
boilermakers . . . a Marine band.
boksok . . . crazy or amuck. Stems from "tagalog," native Philippine dialect. boogies . . . Jap airmen. boondockers . . . field shoes.

- boondocks . . . the wild back country; jungles, brush, forests, plains and deserts.
boot . . . a raw Marine recruit. Also referred to as a yardbird.
boot-camp . . . recruit training camp. Makes a man out of a mouse.
bright-work . . . any shiny metal surface. It must really shine.
brig-rat . . . a prisoner.
bucket of blood . . . a tavern with a bad reputation.
bug bombs . . . canned fog for killing insects in jungles.
a butcher . . . a medical officer.

C

- canned Willie . . . canned beef.
captain of the head . . . the Marine whose job it is to clean latrines.
cattle boat . . . troop transport.
chaser . . . prisoner guard.
chin music . . . talking.
chipping the china . . . complaining, beefing.
collision mats . . . pancakes.
combat pack . . . contains bare field necessities.
corking off . . . relaxing or sleeping. Not always authorized.
cream on shingles . . . creamed beef on toast.
cub . . . anyone who has yet to cross the Arctic Circle.

D

- deadhorse . . . advance pay for foreign peacetime duty.
deck ape . . . a Marine who sweeps and swabs the deck.
deep six . . . bury something.
Ding How . . . O. K. Stems from the Chinese.
ditty box . . . small box for treasuring personal articles like girls' pictures.

Doc . . . name applied to Navy Corpsmen.
a dog face . . . a soldier.
dog it down . . . tie it down or rope it off.
dog robber . . . an officer's orderly.
dopes off . . . acts stupidly.
down . . . to pass along as down the potatoes.
dragon back . . . a Marine who has crossed the 180th Meridian.

E

an ear banger . . . a yes man.
egg in your beer . . . too much of a good thing.
an eightball . . . a Marine slow on the pick-up creating confusion by causing others to run into him.

F

fan tail . . . stern of a ship.
a feather merchant . . . a Marine who sleeps too much. Also an under-sized Marine who goes around saying "The bigger they are, the harder they fall." field scarf . . . necktie.
Fifi . . . the current girl friend. Sometimes it might be her name.
fish eyes . . . tapioca.
a flatfoot . . . a Marine's classification of a sailor. Also known as a swabby. fouled up . . . mixed up, confused. Anything that is not exactly as it should be is fouled up to a Marine.
a 48 . . . two day leave. A rare article.
a foxhole . . . it's your life, it's your coffin. You dig it for yourself to get away from the hot lead. It's your home, your castle, your yacht, your farm rolled into one shallow hole in the ground where you live . . . if you live.
a foxtail . . . a small hand dust brush for cleaning inaccessible places. Marines are Hell on dirt. They clean it out and polish where it was recently at.

frog sticker . . . a bayonet.

G

galley . . . kitchen.
gizmo . . . when you need a word for something and cannot think of it in a hurry, it's a gizmo.
gloms . . . hands.
glue pot . . . a café, inn or spot that sells beer.
going up the pole . . . going on the water wagon.
goldfish . . . canned salmon.
gooks . . . natives.
go-to-Hell hat . . . garrison cap. Sometimes called the fore and aft hat or the over-seas cap. grab-by-the-stacking-swivel . . . to grab near the neck. The pronunciation takes longer than the action.
grass . . . salad.
grease the pole . . . start drinking alcoholic beverages.
greens . . . winter service uniforms. Very comfortable in cool weather. Very uncomfortable in hot weather.
a Griffin . . . a man on duty in the Asiatics less than a year.
gunny . . . the gunnery sergeant. A good egg, but a thirty minute one.

H

a hand cuff volunteer . . . a draftee.
hard money . . . silver or copper coins.
hashmark . . . one on the sleeve for each four years of service. Often called bean stripes. Very highly prized.
hay burner . . . a horse.
head . . . the latrine. If you think of the purpose of a ladies' powder room, you get the general idea.
hit the deck . . . get ready for action. Tough proposition that needs urgent attention or they wouldn't call the Marines.

hit the silk use your parachute.
honey cart garbage wagon.

I

iron kelly steel helmet. Also used as a bucket and general utility container. Sometimes known as a tin derby.

J

Jackson Marine's way of calling a soldier.
jamoke coffee, also called Joe or mud.
jawbone to buy without money. Credit.
jock strap Marine athlete.
Joe pot coffee pot. No Marine is completely equipped without one.

K

khakis summer service uniform.
knothead an unintelligent Marine.
knucklehead a knuckle lower than a knothead.

L

locker box wooden box issued for storing gear and clothing.
lower the boom deliver a knock-out punch.
to lay them in the aisles be popular with native girls.

M

Maggie's drawers a red flag waved to indicate a miss on the firing range.
maskee O. K.
meat wagon ambulance.
military a word to describe anything tough or uncomfortable.

Military wind, military bunk.
Mustang an officer who came up through the ranks. None better.

O

off and on off your fanny and on your feet. Oops, I'm sorry . . . I forgot this has to be published in a book. It means, "I say, old man, would you be good enough to elevate yourself from that comfortable sitting posture, and standing in a more or less military fashion for as brief a time as I can make it, I assure you."
office hours it sounds harmless but it's bad. It is the preliminary trial before the Commanding Officer for an outline of your offense.
old issue an elderly Marine.
on the beach liberty ashore.
on the double in a hurry. Typical of Marine Corps action.
a one brew guy a light drinker.
over the fence to take liberty when restricted to camp.
over the hump to retire after 30 years of service.

P

Padre Chaplain. Also called Holy Joe.
pearl diver a Marine attached to kitchen police duty who washes dishes.
pick up your brass get out of the way.
pigs easy women. They live in pig shacks.
pill roller Navy corpsman or hospital attendant.
plate of 1,000 plate of beans.
plowboy an awkward recruit.
pogie bait candy or sweets.
pollywog a Marine who has never been across the equator.

poncho . . . blanket-like affair with hole in center for head.
popeye . . . spinach.
pungyo . . . Chinese for comrade or buddy.
punk . . . bread.

Q

a quartermaster rain . . . rain that does not interfere with schedules.

R

red lead . . . catsup.
retread . . . an officer called from retirement.
ring tails . . . a Marine gunner's name for Japs. And what a search it was to find a name we could print. The Marines have names for Japs that no lady ought to understand. It's inspired Billingsgate.
rip ho . . . Marine drill instructor's shorthand meaning, "And now, gentlemen, if you will bear with me a few moments longer, and can capture the mood, we shall march to the rear."
rise and shine . . . a call used to wake up sleeping Marines.
ropey . . . disappointing or unsuccessful.
run aground . . . got in trouble.

S

sack time . . . to take time out loafing on a bunk.
skivvies . . . underwear.
scuttlebutt . . . underground gossip.
72 . . . 72 hours' leave.
sea bag . . . a clothing bag which can be carried in the hand and packed to contain a trunkful of clothes the way a Marine can stow away.
sea daddy . . . an older Marine who takes a young recruit and teaches him.

sea dust . . . salt.
sea going turkey . . . fish. Friday fare.
sea hag . . . an unlikely female.
sea lawyer . . . a Marine who is always talking.
segoonya . . . woman. (From the Chinese.) shack mammy . . . native female of the South Pacific Islands.
ships over . . . means a Marine reenlists.
shohiza . . . small boy (Chinese). Sometimes called shohi.
shooting the breeze . . . talking things over.
sick bay . . . hospital dispensary.
sinkers . . . doughnuts. Two big ones for a nickel at the Post Exchange.
skin head . . . a bald Marine.
slapping it on . . . punishing a Marine for a minor offense.
slopchute . . . a beer joint.
smoke blower . . . a Marine whose compliments are discounted.
smokestacking . . . puts on a drunk act in quiet barracks after passing the sobriety scrutiny of the sentry.
spit kit . . . wooden container used as a spittoon.
spud . . . Chinese vodka or its equivalent. Sometimes called potato juice.
squared away . . . shipshape and in good order.
standing lights . . . lights left burning all night.
striker . . . a helper who really does the work.
summary . . . bad news.
swabby . . . a sailor. Sailors are also known as sea-weeds and swab-jockeys. Sailors refer to Marines as sea-going bellhops and also gyrenes. They both call a soldier a dog-face or blister-feet. But these are little superficialities and when they meet ashore in a bar or dancehall their true feelings come out. Should one be over-attentive to another's girl it is cleared up quickly in the back room to the merry ringing of knuckles against front teeth and the joyous jerking of joints.

sweetheart . . . a Marine's rifle. Every leatherneck treats it as such. He holds it carefully above his head when he wades ashore and he sits up at night to oil and polish it. You couldn't do that to a girl, you know. But it would be a lot of fun trying.

T

target paste . . . creamed chip beef. Excellent for breakfast.
throw the book . . . give the maximum punishment.
twist a dizzy . . . roll a cigaret.

U

up behind . . . means drop the line. Used to notify all men to let go of a heaving line simultaneously.

W

weed monkey . . . girl between the ages of 12 and 16 who hangs outside the barracks at night.
worms . . . spaghetti.

Y

yaho pole . . . Chinese word for a lifting pole.
Yehudi . . . the little man who cracks you on the back of the head with a mallet when the chute opens. It is just the opening shock but there is nothing imaginary about the punch.

AUSTRALIAN AND NEW ZEALAND SLANG

A

the Abos original black Australian aborigines.

Aussies and Anzacs Soldiers from Australia and New Zealand.

B

beano a spread.

the billy can for boiling tea.

out in the billy back country.

a bloke a man.

bloody a noncommittal adjective dependent on the subsequent descriptions. A bloody fine fellow is a fine fellow while a bloody ignorant fellow is ignorant.

boko the nose.

bonzer means excellent.

boshter great.

bosker fine.

a brownout equivalent of a black-out diluted.

a brumby a broncho.

"Bully pitch, Old Thing" baseball's equivalent to "Good throw, Old Kid."

the bush the back country.

C

chivvy back talk, being sassy.

a cliner a dame.

cobber side-kick or pal.

cooee Yoo hoo!

a cove a fellow.

cow bad.

D

a deener shilling.

ding bats Italians.

a ding dong swell time.

dinkie cute.

dinkie-die true blue, 100% real.

dinkum a genuine person or article.

dinkum oil full truth.

a Drago a raw recruit. It is really the name of a clumsy Australian insect.

to drop the bundle surrender.

G

a gas producer makes charcoal into motor fuel . . . and looks like a cross between a kitchen range, a moonshine still and a mail order comfort station.

I

imshi leave abruptly, scam.

J

Jerries Germans.

joes blues.

jumping wine Australia's domestic wine.

K

knocked up tired out.

to knock-up awaken.

L

larrikin drunk.

M

Matilda bundle of personal effects.

magged to run off at the mouth.

moke horse.

N

a nipper a small lad.
nips Japs.

P

plonk cheap wine.
Pommies English. Derived from pomegranates; red-cheeked. Elsewhere the British are called Tommys which stems from Kipling's Tommy Atkins.
punting betting.

R

'Roo tail soup a tasty soup made from a kangaroo's tail. That's going a long way back for soup ho ho ho!

S

shandy mixture of light ale and lemonade.
Sheila a comely girl.
shikkered drunk.
a shivoo a party.
I'll shout I'll buy the refreshments. A very cheering thought.

T

tucker food.

W

go whacks Dutch treat.
a wowser a stuffed shirt or a dull, pompous fellow.

Y

yakka hard work, sometimes referred to as yacker but it's no pleasure under either name.

Z

zack sixpence.

SPARS SLANG

(Women's Auxiliary of the U. S. Coast Guard)

Motto: Semper Paratus . . . "Always ready" and SPARS are the initials

S P A R S

A

ample trample . . . regulation government shoes.

are you for sure? . . . do you mean really for true?

army caviar . . . beans.

an aunt Emma . . . a fat patriotic SPAR. Everything she eats goes to the front.

B

beat the booby . . . slap body to increase circulation.

bilge barge . . . the garbage boat.

buck passing . . . pretending not to see the come hither look in the eyes of strange service men. Well, not at first, anyway.

bumping the guns . . . idle chit chat of things nautical but nice.

burlap nylons . . . cotton stockings. Government issue.

pass the B 24 . . . roast chicken.

C

campaign ribbons . . . lingerie straps. Their correct position denotes a successful campaign.

Can you bear it? . . . this reflects the girlish gurglings of delight over their first uniform.

a Casanova complex . . . elderly male officer who instructs SPARS officially but tries to promote extra-curricular activities along social lines.

circus water . . . any fruit drink.

a class in chenille . . . study in channels which is service terminology meaning instruction in for whom you have to see someone to see someone else for whom. Now are there any questions?

cocoa loco . . . hilarity from indulgence in soft drinks.

come to Nature . . . be yourself.

the Commander said No! . . . this means a refusal. However, if a girl should change her mind later, she pipes up, "But the Admiral said Yes!"

cubbling . . . sleeping in bunks.

D

a damp lamp . . . a girl who tries to shine brilliantly despite mental limitations.

didie pins . . . Lieutenant's shoulder bars.

a Don Ameche . . . a telephone message.

Do you mind if I make notes? . . . it means that what you are saying is entirely lacking in veracity.

a dot-dashing young man . . . radio operator.

E

to erolflynn a sandwich . . . eat hastily. Wolf it down.

my etchings . . . scratches on body from field maneuvers and calisthenics.

F

a flag waver . . . great fun to start a new SPAR after. Have her try the commissioned officers first. Imaginary.

a fag hag . . . girl who smokes frequently.

a flack hack a mobile anti-aircraft gun.
I'm going to walk towards the ocean until I float my toupee tragic exuberance over a poor class grade.
full sail a slip that shows. Also known as an Irish pennant.
my flowers and firelight my fiancé.

G

G I lemonade water.
a girdle? gurgle? It means will you have a coke or soft drink?
to go below downstairs in a barracks, ship or lighthouse or observation tower.
the goon shin summer uniform.
Gremlins mischievous sprites who ice up wings, meddle with the compass and change your nickels to dimes when you reach for one at the phone. Imaginary.
a grub gabble gay girlish gushings.

H

going Hell-bound-unsound gay anticipation of the next liberty.

I

I can give you a split week between Pottsville and Chambersburg this means that your act or witticisms have a negligible entertainment value.
it kit leather bag slung from left shoulder containing make-up.
I've got the G I's gastronomic insurrections. Sometimes closely follows the arrival of a large box of candy.

J

Jane-of-the-dust storekeeper in boot camp.

jelly's sister means I'm in a jam.
jiggalorum, jiggumagob, jagamaree, thingamabob, gizmo, gadget and a whatsis articles whose technical names escape you for the moment, presuming, of course, that at one time you really did know them which is some presuming if you follow me, I betcha.
a jody girl in civilian life.
to jump salty become a thoroughbred, sea-going SPAR.
jungle Juliets girls in the Marines.

K

knobbing credit.

L

the lemon pie the white-topped summer hat.
a limp blimp a half inflated dirigible.
the live wire SPAR who giggles at own humor at lights out. love that boy an ejaculation. Your grandmother might have said Heavens to Betsy, or the Lord preserve us, said Mrs. Davis.
Lowhold a nasty little Gremlin who suddenly turns on scalding water when you are in the shower, or just as unexpectedly switches on ice water.

N

she's a napkin the insinuation is that the function of a napkin is to sort of recline in a man's lap, and, you can pick it up from here I'm sure.

O

on the grooby side progressing favorably.
an overstrewn galoon a fat boy.

P

If you will pardon me, I have something in the oven and I don't want it to burn it means that what you are saying has so little interest for me, I must beg to be excused, or, if I am to stay, you will have to discourse on a more mutually in-veigling topic. Boys, for instance.
pigging up eating sweetmeats hungrily. pistol-packin' mamas copperettes. Military Police Traffic duty.
poached egg insignia on an officer's hat.
a phone book Casanova a sailor who goes ashore with a list of phone numbers. The first girl who answers the telephone is his true love.
she's a poor F friendly civilian or a girl not in uniform.
put me on air stake me to a cigaret.

R

a raid unannounced physical examination.
to rape tape disregard military disciplinary rules.
a rat race dance.
rig in your starboard boom pull in your elbows and give me a chance at this corn on the cob.
a rocket gun an impetuous service man who thinks that as you both wear a uniform you have something in common besides the uniform . . . and he isn't thinking of patriotism.
the Rover boys sailors.

S

sabotaged German measles.
saloon so long. It's a sort of goodbye. Another variation is when one SPAR would say Lamour and the other would reply Sarong. Of course, the main thing is if they're healthy.

scandal sheet payroll.
scuttlebutt gossip.
sea dust salt.
a seawolf a sailor with ideas.
secret weapon sex.
shooting the breeze chatting.
shore leave sure love 'em and sure leave 'em. Girlish boastings.
a short snorter a girl who has flown an ocean.
the sixty-four dollar question where do we go from here?
skull practice poring over textbooks.
a snark a SPAR who waits to the last second to man her post.
some of Hitler's work, no doubt it's an attempt to create a laugh which will vitiate the censor for your own shortcomings. I don't know what it means either.

T

a talented boy any lad with money who is willing to spend. Sometimes called a doughboy when it is obvious he is in another branch of the service.
talk to me, baby it means pull me out of this mood in your own dumb way. Life has fallen about my ears.
toe-holds bedroom slippers.
turkey incognito salmon.

V

a vertical tub shower.
see the vice president in charge of vice a brush off when someone wants to discuss out of bound subjects.

W

Who wears your clean shirts? a nasty crack.
weather deck floor exposed to elements in barracks or on ship.

Y

You're as sharp as a woolen muffler
.... it means that you're as sharp as a woolen muffler.

WAVES SLANG

(These girls belong to the U. S. Naval Reserve, Women's Reserve. WAVE is a coined word meaning "Women Accepted for Voluntary Emergency Service.")

A

admiral white blanket with broad blue stripe and U S NAVY printed on it. Every WAVE wears an admiral around her shoulders for fire drill.
all hands the ship's entire company.
AWOL a wolf on the loose or a predatory male looking for friendly doings.
aye aye, sir a very nautical term meaning you betcha.

B

a bag a friend.
barnacle list list of the sick.
bear a hand hurry up.
beating the booby swinging the arms for warmth.
a big deal uncalled for action.
bilge out to flunk out.
binnacle stand in which the compass rests.
blind flying going on a blind date.
blitz pants coveralls.
the bluebraid Women's Reserve officer.
your booby trap is sprung your slip is showing.
bos'n pipe shrill whistle for rendering side honors and passing information aboard ship.
boudoir technique skill ascending upper bunk bed.
brooming rapid speed.
bulkhead walls to a landlubber.

C

caulk off sleep.

cheap liberty a look at the shore through binoculars.
shall we check this place leave.
check your hat or check the gloves means I take note of your hat and very chic.
a cobra unexpected changes in weekly schedules. So-called because they throw the staff into a state of confusion.
COD come over, dear.
come to the party quit day dreaming and focus on the immediate job.
conning tower point from which steering of ship is observed.
a convoy date.
crack the joint get out of a place by force or into one.

D

daisy chain physical examination. The girls line up one behind the other and the doctors scrutinize the peduncle, calyx, corolla, stamens and pistil.
DD a dishonorable discharge.

E

ensign national flag, also junior officer in the Navy.

F

five by five overweight.
flopping the window shades flickering the eyelashes amorously.
front porch etiquette showing personal emotions.

G

galley . . . ship's kitchen.
gear . . . general name for ship's or sailor's equipment.
G I nylons . . . cotton hose.
glop . . . unappetizing food.
Gremlin . . . navy blue cotton summer suit for Women's Reserve. Officially eliminated.
it gripes my cookies . . . disgusts me.
guffy . . . tough.

H

hash marks . . . red or gold stripes on a sailor's sleeve, each denoting a four year enlistment. Gold signifies good behavior.
Havelock list . . . unofficial black list. Should students in training dislike an officer, the officer's name makes the Havelock list.
the hen pen . . . girl's quarters. Also laughingly called virgin territory.
hip kits . . . girdles. Isn't that adorable?
to hit the bluebook . . . get a good grade.
It hurts me, too . . . it means that if you achieve extraordinary success and are complimented, you can retain your modesty by quoting the above.

I

Irish pennants . . . wisps of loose hair, handkerchief flowing, or slip showing. Anything loose or untidy.

J

let's jelly . . . if you drop in for a coke where males drift about, rather than bolt the coke and dash off, you imbibe it leisurely.

L

ladder . . . stairs.
let's blitz . . . leave.
let's get the show on the road . . . get started.
a lily . . . a 'fraidcat.
he listens O K. . . . it means that he sounds acceptable from your description, but I will reserve judgment.
lizzles . . . Navy cotton stockings.
Lisles.
lucky bag . . . locker for lost clothing.

M

a moldy sack . . . a person who doesn't fit in.

N

Navy bags . . . uniforms.
my nose . . . it implies a hand gesture with the thumb anchored to the proboscis.

P

pants' patrol . . . strolling accidentally into male territory.
he tore his pants with me . . . something he did wrecked our beautiful companionship.
porgy bait . . . candy.

R

rank . . . grade of a commissioned officer.
rating . . . grade of an enlisted man.
let's rinse it . . . forget it.
ripple . . . status of a WAVE between swearing in and finishing training.

S

scuttlebutt . . . rumor or gossip.
sea dust . . . salt.
shell back . . . an old sailor.

shipshape . . . neat, seamanlike.
sickbay . . . ship's hospital.
sideboys . . . enlisted men forming a a guard to honor distinguished visitors welcomed aboard.
smoking lamp is lit . . . mythical lamp signifying that smoking is permitted.
he can soak his socks in my coffee . . .
there are qualities about him which I admire greatly.
spitkit . . . receptacle for cigarette butts.
square away . . . to stow. To prepare.
stand by . . . order to be alert for impending task.

striker . . . enlisted man working for a rating.
striper . . . officer.

T

tents . . . coats. Wearing apparel.
they're a thing . . . in love.
turn to . . . start the day's work. A very unclubby suggestion in the cold, grey dawn when you used to be just getting home from a dance.

Z

zombie . . . anyone who receives a commission prior to training.

ARMY AND NAVY NURSES SLANG

A

- Annie . . . any nurse who administers anaesthesia.
Arizona tenor . . . a consumptive.
arthritis of the cerebellum . . . a dumb person.
Aunt D . . . means a doctor who is against dissection. Full title is an antidiseceestablishmentarian. Not against distraction, however.

B

- a B B E . . . blondes before the eyes. Signifies an enlisted man who claims he has spots before the eyes, but the nurses think differently.
bed pan alley . . . the hospital.
a blood sucker . . . a person who applies Wasserman tests.
the Blues . . . two-tone blue uniforms. Olive drab is G I now for Army nurses.
a bouquet . . . a plexus.
Bronx Braille . . . a patient who likes to paw the nurses.
brown kitties . . . bronchitis.
the bug farm . . . tuberculosis sanatorium.

C

- cricket banks . . . glass preserve jars where silk stockings are kept from being eaten by crickets in India and the middle east.
a cripp faker . . . a patient who pretends to be crippled.
a cotton pusher . . . a dentist who is over-rushed with patients and is driven to using temporary cotton fillers in cavities.

D

- a D D . . . a deaf and dumb person.
a dirty nurse . . . handles unsterilized articles, usually in the operating room.
the dock . . . any Army or Navy hospital. Also called the repair shop.
a doctor's delight . . . private patient who is an imaginary invalid and pays well.
a doctrine . . . a female M.D.

E

- an elevator . . . plastic surgeon.

F

- a finger-smith . . . a midwife.
a follow-up man . . . mortician. Sometimes called a land broker.

G

- a gas patient . . . one taking pneumothorax treatment for pneumonia.
to go through the solutions . . . dip hands in disinfectants prior to an operation.
Good Sam . . . the Good Samaritan Hospital in Los Angeles, California.
a G P . . . a gratitude patient in private practice. No money.
a Grahamite . . . a vegetarian.
a gravy hound . . . prison hospital patient.
a grief case . . . a patient who causes trouble.
gubbins . . . soiled dressings.

H

- historian . . . nurse in charge of charts of patients.

hoot owl therapeutics a light left burning in nurse's quarters to discourage hoot owls from disturbing slumbers.

hot house a sweat bath house.

a humming bird a patient who howls during the night and prevents other patients from sleeping. Likes attention.

a hypo a hypochondriac.

I

idiotorium hospital for insane.

inkie incubator baby.

in-patient sleeps in a hospital bed.

insomniac a patient with insomnia. Boasts about it.

insufferable pills sulfanilamide tablets to stop infection.

J

the janitor the pylorus.

jerker patient with delirium tremens in technicolor.

K

the kitchen stomach.

kittens fluffy balls of dust which gather in corners under beds.

L

a loblolly lad serving as ship surgeon's attendant.

M

a mental a psychopathic case. Often called a nut or a Psychot.

Milk and Honey the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, Los Angeles, California.

misery hall emergency dressing station.

N

a night float a relief nurse.

night walker hospital ward boy or night orderly.

O

old Joe U. S. Dispensary book of formulae.

orange-pop man a patient with Cupid Sitch.

out-patient visits hospital for treatment.

P

a pill swallower chronic sick person.

a probationer newly admitted student nurse.

Q

the Queen Queen of Angels Hospital, Los Angeles, California.

R

the Red House St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Government Institution, Washington, D. C.

don't run a temperature get unduly excited. Admonition often used when nurses discuss manly males.

S

scar erasers a run-around for young nurses. Imaginary.

schizzy crazy. Derived from schizophrenia.

a scrub nurse a sterile nurse who handles instruments.

a seed worker native doctors who sell psyllium for all ailments including sluggishness.

sick bay ship's hospital.

a sippy . . . sips liquids.

a sociopath . . . a surly neurotic who hates women. Now what has he got to look forward to, I ask you. There's no future in drinking.

a staircase . . . a continuously increasing series of responses to nerve stimuli.

a stiffy . . . a paralytic.

stink kitchen . . . chemical laboratory.

a sundowner . . . an M. D. in government employ who conducts a private practice after office hours.

T

a ten finger man . . . a chiropractor.

a throw-out . . . a patient who can throw a joint out of place at will.

V

get vulcanized . . . have a wound cared for.

W

a water doctor . . . a hydropathist.

U. S. MARINES SLANG

(Women's Auxiliary)

A

He's A and A . . . this indicates that the gentleman referred to is ambidextrous and amphibious, which means that a girl on a date with him has to watch out for his two hands on land or water or in the air.

arithmetic bugs . . . mosquitos, insects. They add to the misery, subtract from the pleasure, divide the attention and multiply like Hades.

B

a bag with a sag . . . a fat girl.

the bat-eared Gremlin or Duticulatus prangiferos . . . has a long, sharp nose and specializes in inexplicable rips in wings and fuselages.

blue birds . . . what a girl Marine calls a WAVE.

body movies . . . tattooing.

booby traps . . . a slip showing.

a bootee . . . girl recruit in training camp.

a Brigsniff . . . member of the Gremlin family who bites through control wires and jams the guns. Imaginary.

Britannica . . . comb. It derives from Britannica rules the waves.

brow pads . . . the fore and aft caps.

browned off . . . bored with it all.

bulkheads . . . walls.

burnt offering . . . toast.

C

caviar . . . beans.

chevron polish . . . a green recruit will sometimes spend a lot of time trying to locate some of this. Imaginary.

a cluck buck . . . an adolescent soldier who talks of home and mother.

the Creaper . . . another Gremlin who has an ingratiating manner, gets the confidence of a pilot and then tampers with the instrument needles and causes a stall.

the Crooker . . . the dirtiest Gremlin of them all. He waits until a pilot has been flying a long time through clouds and then whispers, "You're flying upside down." The pilot hurriedly turns over and flies upside down while the Crooker laughs and laughs and sneaks off and drinks the gasoline, leaving the pilot barely enough to get home on.

D

Des Moines debts . . . what a girl Marine calls a WAC.

Did you have an appointment? . . . spoken very unseriously by one girl to another. Friendly kidding.

Don't call, leave your phone number . . . same as above.

it's Dracula . . . in a class by itself.

to dummy up . . . assume innocence.

E

the Emily Dinsmores . . . term used to refer to the SPARS.

an eager beaver . . . one of your classmates who is smarter than the others and knows it and does it and shows it. As Jimmy Durante would say, "It's mortifyin'."

F

a fan dancer . . . a girl Marine on the business end of a broom.

an FHA a loan from a pal.
fourth class liberty a look at the shore through the binoculars.
it fractured me nonplussed me.
a frozen mouse chocolate ice cream.

G

galley kitchen.
a gay ape any service man who performs training routines to entertain girls.
G I cocoanuts brassieres.
a goon slow on the pick-up causing confusion.
the grinder drill field.

H

a heroine means a large woman.
Everything she eats goes to the front.
he's an allotment denotes a service man with a wife.

I

I hardly think you're the type we're looking for today a very discouraging statement used to squelch over-ambitious Romeos.
I may have a weekend for you . . . this is different. This is the green light but don't try to move in too fast.

J

a jig an Ethiopian.
a Joe oak a lad who majors in puns ad nauseum.
jungle Juliets girl Marines.
jute nylons cotton stockings.

L

leave your name and address and if anything turns up, we'll get in touch with you gay whimsey from one girl to another. It means anything but what it says.

a lug jug soldier who carries a flask.

M

the mail female the mail orderly.
It spells all right but it sounds like something out of Ripley.
make me believe it disregard facts and bowl me over.
a math prof a mathematics professor. However, it doesn't indicate such a gentleman and scholar. It is used to designate a young, ambitious chap who can add two and two and get sex.
medals under eyes the morning after a date with a service man. If the date was with a civilian, they are just plain bags.
a mothball a girl who never gets a date so works on her clothes.
mother and father were cousins but I'm all right the gestures which accompany this are sticking tongue out of corner of mouth and looking cross-eyed at tip of nose. Very startling. The purpose is to convey the impression someone else is crazy.

O

the one o'clock jump elevator.

P

parole graduation.
PFD private for the duration.
the pickle label chevrons.
a piece of cake an easy job.
plant me now, dig me later tell me of life and love and strong masculine arms about me in the moonlight, soft music and champagne.
Later on, much later, you can take up the penalties and hard facts.

the platoon spittoon plumbing fixtures surrounding a gargling girl.
pop-ins poplin shirts.
pullets fledgling recruits.

R

rats soft cocoons of fluff which tumble about the floor in conspicuous manner during inspection of quarters and mysteriously vanish as soon as the C.O. delivers the demerits.

a rhinorrea a cold.

right off the cob a rural recruit.

rugged Rogers government issue shoes, also known as boondockers.

rumpus room powder room.

S

she's steady sounds like a compliment but it implies that she is motionless.

a silly filly very young civilian girls who hang around men's barracks. Often called khaki-wackies.

skywinders airmen.

a soapy hope wishful thinking.

sorority sauce catsup.

spitkits ash trays.

spizerinkum intestinal fortitude.

a srewn platoon sloppy drill.

my stable the pin-up boys.

stairs ladder of rope or iron.

state your case and be brief this appalls a new recruit by its business-like brevity, but they soon learn to reply, "Oh, a brief case."

street monkey drum major in band.

strictly stock dull.

swinging on the meat over-anxious to please officers.

T

a 3 P.M. picture implies an excellent cinema to which three Military Police will be assigned for routine duty.

traffic daffic away from a city so long that the red and green traffic lights are confusing.

a tug-lug a male companion who disregards your uniform and excellent physical condition and solicitously holds your elbow over the curb.

the twister to the slammer key to locker trunk.

W

the watch works the brain.

worming studying.

WRENS AND WAAFS SLANG

(WRENS—Women's Royal Naval Service attached to the British Royal Navy)

(WAAFS—Women's Auxiliary Air Force attached to the Royal Air Force)

A

adrift away from headquarters.

B

a bad show anything which is not up to expectations, often referred to as a black.

broolly parachute.

browned off bored.

buttoned up under control of orders executed.

C

cheesed messed up.

chokker expresses a state of mind wherein one is tired of it all.

collecting gongs casual reference to a trip to Buckingham Palace for the honor of being decorated with medals.

crickets Nazi planes.

crushers petty officers who rebuke one for discipline infractions.

D

dripping grumbling.

the dust bin rear gunner's turret on plane.

E

erk British recruit. Often a mechanic.

F

flak bursts from anti-aircraft guns.

G

George automatic pilot in a plane.

give a bottle receive a lecture from the Commanding Officer.

the greenhouse portable cockpit cover.

J

jaunty master-at-arms.

a Junkerschmitt any German plane.

K

a killick a WREN's sailor boy friend.

a kipperkite a Coastal Command plane.

L

laid on a job performed satisfactorily.

M

Mickey Mouse the bomb releasing mechanism.

O

Old Boomerang Lockheed Hudson plane. Always returns home.

the oppo a boy friend in the Royal Navy.

the outside view keeping altitude to avoid anti-aircraft bursts.

P

penguins . . . non-flyers attached to the R.A.F.
 pleep . . . anything poor.
 a pongo . . . a WREN's soldier boy friend.
 a pukka . . . a comely dame.
 pulpit . . . cockpit.

R

ropey . . . bad, uncooperative. Could be an obstinate girl.
 rum . . . bad, poor.

S

scran . . . excellent.
 to scream downhill . . . dive on an enemy plane.
 snake about . . . cruising about in clouds awaiting enemy planes. Also known as playing pussy.

a solid lump of blitz . . . a formation of enemy planes.

T

tiddley . . . all dressed up whether it be a lad, a ship, or a girl.

U

going up the line . . . furlough.

V

the views . . . the slant on anything.

W

it's wizard . . . excellent.
 WAAFS carry a reddish colored identification card . . . Notice posted at headquarters: "WAAFS, upon proper military demand, must show their pink forms."

WACS SLANG

(Women's Auxiliary Corps, U. S. Army)

A

abandoned by a bandit . . . an ardent boy friend gave up the pursuit.
agony shift . . . night work.
arsenal wear . . . G I lingerie.

B

barracks bags . . . morning-after circles under the eyes.
beat up . . . weary. In a condition for salvage.
blitz britches . . . rayon O. D. panties for wear with skirts.
the blow boy . . . bugler, also known as the windjammer and Gabriel.
boll weevils . . . thick brown cotton stockings.
the book rack . . . the bunk bed.
bum biology . . . study class in incendiary bombs.
the burp class . . . class in defense against gas attack.
butcher . . . dentist.

C

a canteen cowboy . . . a soldier who spends time and money at the canteen in order to chat with the uniformed girls who wait on customers.
the cat walk . . . pathway between the sleeping bunks to the powder room.
she's a cheer . . . a fat WAC. A cheer starts out Hip Hip Hurrah with two fat hips which makes a fat WAC a cheer or shall we just let the whole thing drop?
chow down . . . dinner is served.
a class in lemonade . . . First Aid instruction. coming in on a wing and a prayer . . . chicken for dinner and a prayer that it's tender.

confetti . . . blarney, flattery.
cool . . . good.
cops . . . inspecting officers.
costume jewelry . . . WAC military insignia. to cut off a scene . . . to leave, exit.

D

dry ammunition . . . cosmetics.
dunk the lilywhite . . . take a shower.

F

a fat apple . . . a grouch.
a foolish virgin . . . girl who prefers books to boys.

G

She's a G I jane . . . O.K. Strictly on the level.
gigs . . . demerits.
G I necklaces . . . identification tags.
the Good News Tree . . . big tree at WAC Training Camp, Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., where orders are posted which start WACS to the Seven Seas. got me pushed . . . it's got me baffled and I don't know what to do.
he's gravy . . . a good-looking male.
gruesome twosome . . . WAC regulation shoes.

H

hair warden . . . camp hairdresser.
harpoon detail . . . getting immunization shots.
headache roster . . . duty roster.
heavy . . . excellence. We had some heavy grapes last night.
He did? . . . means say that again with more details.

Here's to me, good girls are scarce WAC toast over a coke.
Hobby Lobby WAC Chief Colonel Hobby's Headquarters.

J

jeep jockeys WAC auto mechanics in Motor Transport. jubilee reveille.

L

lay on a pad and cop a nod retire to the bunk bed.

M

make a dash leave.
making liaison promoting an interesting friendship with a handsome man.
monkey suits G I coveralls.
moose a male visitor to the camp.

N

a narrow Flynn a narrow escape from an impetuous lover.
night maneuvers dates with boys.

O

orchid hunt furlough.

P

Shall we lay the pads on the bricks over the week-end? shall we promote liberty and go sightseeing in the nearby city?
pardon my bare hand humorous WAC etiquette.
I'm PFC praying for a corporal which translated means I want a man.
potty disagrees.
powder-rumors L.R.'s. Latrine rumors. Gossip and communiqués that start and end nowhere.

press the flesh shake hands and allow me to congratulate you.
P T physical training and setting up exercises.
put a nickel in it hurry up.
putting on a face make-up. Cosmetics.

Q

quail young females who follow soldiers entranced by their uniform.
quit flapping your lips be good enough to desist in your conversation.

R

rat race burst of speed to the mess hall.
reporting for duty going to meet a date.
he's right out of Buck Rogers a strong, masculine soldier who hasn't been around women much.
reverse the frames bicycling on your shoulders without the bicycle.
the rogues gallery pin-up boys.
Male pictures on the wall.
rubber balls oranges.
rubber patches pancakes.
rush pass. Rush the potatoes.

S

a sad apple a goldbrick. One who shuns work.
back in S and S means back when the WAC camps opened and the menus were composed of salads and sandwiches which later gave way to roast beef, potatoes, etc.
a savage an eccentric character.
to scoff to dine.
a scrowge a lad talented in osculation.

THE SQUARE
FROM DELAWARE
HAD A NARROW
FLYNN WITH A
SAVAGE; STRAIGHT
FROM DRACULA

SHE'S SCREWY
AS A TOAD.
THAT CANTEEN-
COWBOY'S NO
SCROWGE.
PUT A
NICKEL IN IT...
I'M OFF ON AN ORCHID
HUNT

I was scrozzled . . . they took unfair advantage of me.
she ranks me . . . a double meaning expression delivered as a compliment and meaning that although she is of higher rank nevertheless she is rank to me.
she's screwy as a toad . . . reflection on her mentality and thought processes.
she's a square from Delaware . . . a girl who hails from a small town.
a slangwich . . . WAC who excels in picturesque service slang.
snake eyes . . . a WAC who attempts to steal another's boy friend.
I'm goin' to get stinkin' from drinkin' I'm thinkin' . . . expresses exuberant despair over a minor failure and often leads to a malted milk binge.
He's straight from Dracula . . . an interesting male in a repulsive sort of a way.
straight jacket . . . starched shirt.
strictly from the commissary . . . refers to a uniform and insinuates it once contained potatoes.

T

take her down to the butchers . . . a fat girl who might be rendered.
the target for tonight . . . a boy friend.

U

she belongs to the upper classes . . . sleeps in the upper bunk bed.

V

varsity crewman . . . any Navy officer who passes.

W

the WAC shack . . . barracks. Sometimes called the Wackery.
the Wax Works . . . school house.
WAC happy . . . physical well being, good food and companionship and a classy uniform create an excess of exuberance.
Who hung that sack on you? . . . indicates admiration for another's uniform.
wolfing . . . going where males congregate.
a wrong number . . . a false friend.

Y

You ain't just clickin' your pickets . . . this denotes that despite the staccato obligato of your dentures, there is considerable truth in your testimony.
You ain't kiddin' . . . here it means that although the usual silly look is in your face, you have inadvertently stated a fact that can be substantiated. Yes, indeed, and I guess that finishes this book so, if you will excuse me, I promised my psychiatrist I would bring him over a trunk full of pancakes and syrup this afternoon. I see it has begun to leak a little on the floor so if you will just help me up with it onto my shoulders. Gently does it. Ooops, steady now. That's good. Thank you. Well, goodbye, and as I always say, "My mother and father were cousins, but I'm all right." If you need me for anything, just follow the trail of the syrup.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA LIBRARY
BERKELEY

Return to desk from which borrowed.
This book is DUE on the last date stamped below.

MAR 4 1948		SEP 15 1986
Nov 11 '49 RP	JAN 10 1962	AUTO. DISC.
REC'D	4 Jun '43	SEP 13 1986
22 Jan '52 P	REC'D LD
12 Jan '52 LP	MAY 21 '64 - 3 PM
9 Nov '59 LOP
	RECEIVED
	MAR 16 '68 - 12 AM
3x Jan '62 JH	DEC 28 '63

LD 21-100m-9,'47 (A5702s16)476

M235962		889y K33
Kendall, Park		Dictionary of service slang dic
APR 5 1945	READING ROOM ✓	Sep 25 '46L
JAN 9 1947	✓	FEB 6 1947
FEB 6 1947	S	FEB 6 1947
MAR 4 1948	✓	MAR 4 1948

M235962

889y
K33
dic

THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA LIBRARY

GENERAL LIBRARY - U.C. BERKELEY

8000860568

